

Norwegian Ministry of Education and Research

Summary

Meld. St. 4 (2018–2019) Report to the Storting (white paper)

Long-term plan for research and higher education 2019–2028

Meld. St. 4 (2018–2019) Report to the Storting (white paper) Summary

Long-term plan for research and higher education 2019–2028

Contents

1	Government policy for research and higher education	5	8	Planning the building stock and campuses of Norway's higher education institutions: development, management and priorities	27
1.1	Ambition	5
1.2	Further escalation of efforts	6
1.3	Objective of the long-term plan	7	8.1	The importance of well-designed university and university college buildings	27
1.4	Structure of the long-term plan	7
1.5	Trends and new perspectives	8
1.5.1	Sustainable Development Goals ...	8	8.1.1	Capacity development and adaptation to the needs of a knowledge society	28
1.5.2	The transition to a green society ..	10
1.5.3	Digitalisation	11
1.5.4	Democratic development and public discourse	12	8.1.2	Government policy for the building stock at public universities and university colleges	28
1.5.5	Norway in the world	13
1.6	Status	13	8.2	A clear planning, construction and management system for the university and university college building stock	29
1.6.1	Norway as a knowledge nation	13
1.6.2	Follow-up of the first period of the long-term plan	14	8.2.1	Management regimes	29
2	Objectives for the next plan period	18	8.2.2	The Ministry's management framework	30
2.1	About the objectives	18	8.2.3	Funding models	31
2.2	Enhancing competitiveness and innovation capacity	18	8.2.4	Major government investments in university and university college buildings	32
2.3	Resolving major societal challenges	19	8.3	Buildings as an input factor – the importance of strategic campus development	37
2.4	Developing academic and research communities of outstanding quality	20	8.3.1	The academic and organisational importance of strategic campus development	37
3	Seas and oceans	21	8.3.2	Campus development plans	37
4	Climate, the environment and clean energy	22	8.4	Development and maintenance needs	38
5	Public sector renewal and better public services	23	8.4.1	Growing student numbers	39
6	Enabling and industrial technologies	25	8.4.2	Mergers and co-location	39
7	Societal security and social cohesion in a globalised world	26	8.4.3	Historical buildings	40
			8.4.4	Modernisation and upgrading	40
			8.5	Cost-effective university and university college buildings that play a role in innovation and climate and environmentally friendly solutions	41
			8.6	Unique collections of importance for Norwegian history, culture and identity	42
			8.6.1	University museums	42