

[EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 10, July 31, 1946]

FIXING THE ALLOWANCES OF THE FLIGHT PERSONNEL OF THE PHILIPPINE ARMY AIR FORCE, RESTORING THE LONGEVITY PAY FOR THE PHILIPPINE ARMY, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

For the purposes of carrying into effect the provisions of section ninety of Commonwealth Act Numbered One, known as the National Defense Act, as amended, I, Manuel Roxas, President of the Philippines, do hereby prescribe:

1) Officers and enlisted men of the Philippine Air Force when, by order of competent authority, required to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flight, and when in consequence of such order, they do participate in regular and frequent flight, shall receive additional compensation equivalent to 25 per centum of the monthly base pay received by non-flying personnel of the same rank and grade: Provided, That qualified first, second and third-class mechanics not exceeding 15 per centum of the enlisted men of the Air Force when, by orders of competent authority, required to properly maintain flying equipment shall receive additional monthly pay of P75, P50 and P25 each respectively: Provided, further, That under such regulations as the Secretary of National Defense shall prescribe, enlisted men of the Air Force rated as specialists when, upon orders by competent authority, directed to perform duties requiring technical skill shall receive extra pay corresponding to each class per month, as follows:

First class	P60.00
Second class	50.00
Third class	40.00
Fourth class	30.00
Fifth class	20.00
Sixth class	10.00
Seventh class	8.00
Eighth class	6.00
Ninth class	3.00

(2) Payment of longevity pay to officers of the Philippine Army who have already acquired such right and privilege under the law is restored.

(3) The rental allowances per month of officers of the Philippine Army stationed in the provinces when not occupying public quarters shall be as follows: