II. RATIONALE:

1. Section 33 (a), RA8551 provides that; "A uniformed member of the PNP shall not be eligible for promotion to a higher position or rank unless he or she X X X has satisfactorily completed the appropriate and accredited course in the PNPAor equivalent training institutions XXX." To pursue this specific provision, the NAPOLCOM in its Memo Circular 92-016 listed the mandatory career courses for uniformed PNP personnel, both for PCOs and PNCOs, as a requirement for promotion.
2. The aforementioned provisions of law and other regulations by implication has an end in view of enhancing the academic proficiency of uniformed PNP personnel thereby further promoting professionalism in the PNP
3. However, interview conducted among the recent graduates of the different career courses as to the significance of the course they have recently completed revealed that almost all complied with the requirement only for the sake of compliance. Most of them also revealed that no extra effort was ever exerted to pursue academic excellence. Rather, they were contented just to pass the course for the sake of passing. Another interview was conducted among senior officers and they expressed similar sentiments and comments.
4. This attitude, if left unchecked and uncorrected would later develop into a culture of mediocrity among uniformed personnel which most probably will be imbedded into the PNP as an organization.

III. PURPOSE:

This PNP Memorandum Circular therefore aims to correct the aforementioned attitude, and instead, develop a culture of excellence among all uniformed PNP personnel.

IV. DEFINITION OF TERMS:

1. Academic proficiency - Having a high degree of skill in something relating to education, educational studies, an educational institution, or an educational system;
