

[ SRA CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 32, January 28, 1992 ]

STORAGE FEES ON RECLASSIFIED "B-1" SUGAR

Under SRA Sugar Order No. 5, dated 21 January 1992, a certain percentage of the 1991-92 sugar production has been allocated as "B-1" Domestic (Reserve) sugar which may be withdrawn from mill warehouses only after the maturity dates indicated in quedan-permits covering "B-1", sugar. This means that as long as the sugar remains "B-1", the same cannot be withdrawn. Hence, no storage fee shall be imposed.

Storage charges shall commence only upon reclassification of the "B-1" sugar as "B"; thereafter, all sugar mills shall provide a free storage period of ninety (90) days. This means that "B-1" sugar, upon becoming "B", is immediately withdrawable and the free storage period starts to run. It is only upon expiration of said free storage period that storage fees can be imposed.
