

[ CSC MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 06, February 02, 1990 ]

GUIDELINES ON THE IMPLEMENTATION OF CSC RESOLUTION NO. 90-073 DATED JANUARY 22, 1990

The Civil Service Commission in its Resolution No. 90-073 dated January 22, 1990 adopted the policy that civil service eligibilities resulting from bar or board examinations or assembled specialized written examinations conducted by the Civil Service Commission or department or agencies with the assistance of, or in coordination with, the Civil Service Commission, and eligibilities granted under PD 907 as amended, and PD 997 shall be allowed for permanent appointment to corresponding level of positions in the career service, provided that the appointee meets the education, training and experience and other requirements for the position prescribed in the approved qualification standards.

To provide uniform interpretation and application of the said eligibilities, the following guidelines are hereby prescribed:

1. Eligibilities resulting from specialized written examinations conducted by the Civil Service Commission or department or agencies with the assistance of, or in coordination with, the CSC or board or bar examinations which require at least four (4) years of college studies shall be appropriate for appointment to first and second level positions not covered by examinations as required by law, provided that the persons appointed to these positions possess the education, training and experience and other qualifications required for the positions.
2. Eligibilities resulting from specialized written examinations or board examinations which require less than four (4) years of college studies shall be appropriate for appointment to first level positions not covered by examinations as required by law, provided that the persons appointed to these positions possess the education, experience and training, and other qualifications required for the positions.
3. The corresponding RA 1080 (Board/Bar) eligibilities shall be required for appointment to positions, the duties of which constitute practice of a profession regulated by the Philippine bar or board laws.
4. Eligibilities granted pursuant to Resolution No. 435 and MC No. 10 shall be appropriate only for the particular positions for which they were given, and for higher positions in the same level within the same or functionally-related group of positions.
5. Police eligibilities recognized by the Civil Service Commission shall only be applicable to specific positions enumerated in MC No. 7, s. 1986 and to functionally related positions involved in the enforcement of laws and ordinances, prevention of crime, apprehension of criminals, and
