

[PROCLAMATION NO. 910, September 05, 2005]

DECLARING SEPTEMBER 12, 2005, AS A NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER, CONVERSION, REPARATION, AND CONSECRATION FOR OUR NATION

WHEREAS, the promotion of peace and unity among the Filipino people is one of the highest goals of the Government;

WHEREAS, this goal has all too often lost its relevance in our nation, which is beset by hostility, bitterness, constant conflict, and too much politics;

WHEREAS, our country is facing several challenges, which require the steadfast devotion of every Filipino to work for the common good and for the betterment of our country;

WHEREAS, particularly in these trying times, it is time to make a reaffirmation of our commitment to this goal, through personal reflection, change in attitudes, and solidarity for the public welfare and the development of our country;

WHEREAS, a day of prayer, conversion, reparation, and consecration may serve to promote the attainment of our national goals;

NOW, THEREFORE, I GLORIA MACAPAGAL - ARROYO, President of the Republic of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers vested in me by law, do hereby declare September 12, 2005 as a National Day of Prayer, Conversion, Reparation, and Consecration for our Nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Republic of the Philippines to be affixed.

City of Manila, 05 September 2005

(Sgd.) GLORIA MACAPAGAL - ARROYO

By the President:

(Sgd.) EDUARDO R. ERMITA

Executive Secretary
