

[PROCLAMATION NO. 440, September 02, 1957]

DECLARING SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1957, AS CHILDREN'S DAY

WHEREAS, we are all vitally interested in the well-being of children, especially in these times when they are exposed to so many temptations to stray away from the straight and narrow path;

WHEREAS, the future of the nation demands that children be given all the care and attention necessary to make them good and useful citizens; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to set aside a day dedicated to children in the hope of arousing greater concern for their welfare;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Carlos P. Garcia, President of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers vested in me by law, do hereby declare, Saturday, September 21, 1957, as Children's Day and designate the Children's Library and Museum, Inc., to take charge of its celebration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto-set my hand and caused the seal of the Republic of the Philippines to be affixed.

Done in the City of Manila, this 2nd day of September, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, and of the Independence of the Philippines, the twelfth.

CARLOS P. GARCIA
President of the Philippines
