Everybody remained standing for the Prayer.

PRAYER

MR. TINGSON: From the Holy Scriptures, specifically from the Book of Hebrews, we read about the subject of faith:

Now Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen, for by it the elders obtained a good report. Through Faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the Word of God so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

Let us pray. Loving heavenly Father, Whose we are and Whom we serve, we approach Thy throne of grace this morning as we start another day of work at our Constitutional Commission with deep humility and with a profound sense of gratitude; deep humility because we are not worthy to be entrusted with such a heavy and intricate task; profound gratitude because we can do all things through Christ Who strengthens us which is really faith at work; faith which is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen; faith which is the flow of divine energy through us who are willing to do that which is well pleasing in Thy sight; faith which is believing the incredible, seeing the invisible and doing the impossible.

Our country, dear Lord, needs a political stabilizing document. Help us write it well. We need to finish this Charter fairly soon. We cannot afford to disappoint our people. Bless us with a discerning mind, a believing heart, a strong physique, and a living and uncompromising faith.

And along with St. Paul, we declare true faith in Thy goodness, tolerance and understanding when he said: "This is our work and we can do it because Christ's mighty energy is at work within us."

In the Blessed and Matchless Name of Christ, we pray. Amen.
