

July 28, 1984

EXECUTIVE PROGRAMME FOR EDUCATIONAL, CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF
THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES AND THE REPUBLIC OF IRAQ

The Governments of the Republic of the Philippines and the Republic of Iraq in their desire to increase cooperation in the fields of education, culture and science in accordance with the educational, cultural and scientific agreement concluded on 26/I/19S2, have agreed on the following executive programme for educational, cultural and scientific cooperation for the years 1984-1985/1985-1986/1986-1987-

I. EDUCATION AND SCIENCE

ARTICLE 1

Both governments shall encourage direct cooperation between their universities, and the Iraqi government shall specifically convey the desire of Basrah University and Al-Mustansiryah University for the establishment of cogent bilateral relations with Philippine universities.

ARTICLE 2

Both countries shall exchange professors for the purpose of exchanging experience, undertaking scientific researches and delivering lectures for a period of 1-2 weeks as well as participating in scientific conferences, courses and seminars held in both countries. Details shall be agreed upon through diplomatic channels.

ARTICLE 3

The Iraqi government shall annually allocate studying scholarships to twelve (12) Filipino students under each of the following specializations/fields of study in Iraqi universities:

- a. Computer Science/Engineering
- b. Oil Engineering
- c. Geology
- d. Arabic Language
- e. Islamic History

ARTICLE 4

The Philippine government shall annually allocate to twelve (12) Iraqi students studying scholarships in nursing, agriculture and communications.

ARTICLE 5

The Philippine government shall grant 1 or 2 months advance training in the fields of nursing, agriculture and communications for cadres working in the institutions under the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research of the Republic of Iraq.

ARTICLE 6

The Philippine government shall accommodate ten (10) students of all studying stages from the college of Nursing at Baghdad. University in July and August of each year, for training in selected Philippine state hospitals.

ARTICLE 7

Both governments shall exchange scientific, literary, educational, cultural and sports publications, bulletins, magazines, film and researches, photos and films of transcripts.

ARTICLE 8

Both governments shall exchange experiences by means of exchanging publications in the following fields:

- a. Theoretical and applied educational planning
- b. Application of computer technology in the field of education
- c. Designing and construction of school buildings by means of ready-made materials

ARTICLE 9

Both governments shall exchange researches, studies and publications in the following fields:

Educational systems of kindergarten and primary stages

Researches and studies in the fields of vocational technical education

Scientific bulletins, periodicals and films in the field of vocational-technical education

ARTICLE 10

Both governments shall exchange educational delegations consisting of three officials from the Ministry of Education of seven (?) days to be acquainted with different educational fields of common interest to both countries during the validity period of this programme.

ARTICLE 11

Both governments shall allocate short-term training scholarships in favor of each country considering their specialized fields and underwrite the expenses in accordance with Article 14-

II. CULTURE AND INFORMATION

ARTICLE 12

Both governments shall exchange scientific, cultural, informational and artistic exhibitions and publications,

ARTICLE 13