AMENDED IMPLEMENTING RULES AND REGULATIONS OF REPUBLIC ACT NO. 7356 (LAW CREATING THE NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR CULTURE AND THE ARTS, APRIL 3, 1992)
OCTOBER 11, 2007

The National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) hereby promulgates the Amended Rules and Regulations of 2007 to implement Republic Act No. 7356, otherwise known as the "Law Creating the National Commission for Culture and the Arts."

SECTION 1. Short Title – These rules shall be known as the "Amended Implementing Rules and Regulations of 2007 of Republic Act No. 7356 entitled, An Act creating the National Commission for Culture and the Arts, Establishing a National Endowment Fund for Culture and the Arts, and for other Purposes."

Rule 1
Declaration of Principles

SECTION 2. Culture as a Human Right – Culture is a manifestation of the free- dom of belief and of expression, and is a human right to be accorded due respect and allowed to flourish.

SECTION 3. National Identity – Culture reflects and shapes values and beliefs and emulates the aspirations of the people's cultural wisdom, thereby defining a people's national identity. A Filipino national culture that mirrors Philippine economic, social, and political life shall be evolved, promoted and conserved.

SECTION 4. Culture of the People – The Filipino national culture shall be:

4.1 Independent, free of political and economic structures which inhibit cultural sovereignty;

4.2 Equitable, effectively creating and distributing cultural opportunities and correcting the imbalance that has long prejudiced the poor and other marginalized sectors who have the least opportunities for cultural development and educational growth;

4.3 Dynamic, continuously developing in pace with scientific, technological, social, economic and political changes, both in national and international levels;

4.4 Progressive, developing the vast potential of all Filipinos as responsible change agents of society; and

4.5 Humanistic, ensuring the freedom and creativity of human spirit

SECTION 5. Culture by the People – The Filipino National Culture shall be evolved and developed by the people themselves according to their own original and ancestral wisdom.

National cultural policies and programs shall be formulated which shall be:

5.1 Pluralistic, fostering deep respect for the cultural identity of each locality, region or ethno-linguistic locality, as well as elements assimilated from other cultures through the natural process of acculturation;

5.2 Democratic, encouraging and supporting the participation of the vast masses of the Filipino people in its programs and projects;

5.3 Non-partisan, open to all people and institutions, regardless, of creed, affiliation, ideology, ethnic origin, age, gender, or class, with no organized group or sector having monopoly of its services.

5.4 Liberative, having concern for the decolonization and emancipation of the Filipino psyche in order to ensure the full flowering of Filipino culture; and

5.5 Nationalistic, the bonding and harmony of people based on the common recognition of cultural heritage.

SECTION 6. Culture for the People – The creation of artistic and cultural products shall be promoted and disseminated to the greatest number of our people. The level of consciousness of the Filipino people and about their own cultural values in order to strengthen the Filipino culture and to instill nationhood and cultural unity shall be raised formally through the educational system and informally through extra-scholastic means, including the use of traditional as well as modern media of communication.

SECTION 7. Preservation of the Filipino Heritage – It is the duty of every citizen to preserve and conserve the Filipino historical and cultural heritage and resources. The retrieval and conservation of artifacts of Filipino culture and history shall be vigorously pursued.
