AN ACT CONVERTING THE LUCBAN NATIONAL COLLEGE , ITS UNITS AND BRANCHES INTO THE SOUTHERN LUZON
POLYTECHNIC COLLEGE, PROVIDING A CHARTER FOR THIS PURPOSE, EXPANDING ITS CURRICULAR OFFERINGS, AND REDIRECTING ITS OBJECTIVES.

Be it enacted by the Batasang Pambansa, in session assembled:

SECTION 1. The present Lucban National College , its branches and units, are hereby converted into a state college to be known as Southern Luzon Polytechnic College, hereinafter referred to in this Act as the State College .

SEC. 2. The State College shall primarily provide higher technological, professional, occupational, vocational instruction and training in the applied arts and sciences. It shall also promote applied research, advanced studies and progressive leadership in its areas of specialization.

SEC. 3. The governing body of the State College shall be the Board of Trustees of the Southern Luzon Polytechnic College which shall be composed of the following:

Minister of Education and Culture, Chairman;

President, Southern Luzon Polytechnic College, Vice Chairman;

Representative of the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA), Member; and

Two (2) prominent citizens who have distinguished them-selves in the professions or fields of specialization of the Southern Luzon Polytechnic College, one representing the alumni of the State College, the other chosen from prominent citizens in the municipality or province where the State College is located, to be appointed by the President of the Philippines upon recommendation of the Minister of Education and Culture, as Members.

The first group of appointive trustees shall serve for two (2) years and four (4) years, respectively. Thereafter, the appointees shall hold office for a term of four (4) years. In case of vacancy, the appointee shall hold office for the unexpired term only.

In the absence of the Minister of Education and Culture, the Minister shall authorize a representative, preferably the Deputy Minister of Education and Culture and at least a Director, to sit in the meetings of the Board: Provided, however, That during these meetings, the President shall preside as Vice Chairman of the Board.

SEC. 4. The governing board shall exercise policy-making functions in accordance with the general policies, plans, and programs on national and regional development as may be issued by the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA). The Minister of Education and Culture as Chairman of the governing board, shall see to it that the general education policies, plans and programs as formulated and promulgated are adopted and observed by the State College.

SEC. 5. The Board of Trustees shall have the following specific powers and duties in addition to the general powers as provided in Section Thirty-six of Batas Pambansa Blg. 68, otherwise known as the Corporation Code of the Philippines :

- a. To enact for the government of the State College such rules and regulations not contrary to law as may be necessary to carry out the purpose and functions of the State College ;
- b. To receive and appropriate to the ends specified by law, such sums as may be provided for the support of the State College ;
- c. To import duty-free essential commodities and materials for advanced educational or technological programs as an exception to existing laws: Provided, That such commodities or materials are not available locally; and to receive in trust legacies, gifts, and donations of real and personal property of all kinds, to administer the same for the benefit of the State College or for aid to any student in accordance with the directions and instructions of the donor, and in default thereof, in such manner as the governing board may in its discretion determine. Such donations shall be exempt from all taxes and shall be considered as deductible items from the income tax of the donors;
- d. To approve the curricula and rules of discipline drawn by the Administrative and Academic Councils as hereinafter provided ;
- e. To confer degrees upon successful candidates for graduation, to award honorary degrees upon persons in recognition of learning, public service, statesmanship or eminence in any field of specialization of the State College, and to authorize the President of the State College to award certificates for completion of non-degree programs;
- f. To confirm appointments of vice presidents, secretary, deans, directors, registrar, heads of departments, professors, and other officials and employees of the State College made by the President; to fix their compensation, hours of service, and such other duties and conditions as the governing board may promulgate, in accordance with the provisions of existing laws; to remove them for cause after investigation and hearing;
- g. To establish Chairs in the State College and to provide fellowships for qualified faculty members and scholarships to deserving students;
- h. To fix tuition fees and such other necessary school charges as the governing-board may deem proper to impose, Such fees and charges, including other incomes generated by the State College, shall constitute a special trust fund for the exclusive use of the State College, any provision of existing laws to the contrary notwithstanding; and
- i. To authorize the construction or repair of its buildings, machineries, equipment and other facilities and the purchase of necessary supplies, materials and equipment; any provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, however. That the funds for the purpose shall come from the authorized appropriations of the State College .

SEC. 6. A quorum of the governing board shall consist of a majority of all the members holding office at the time of the meeting: Provided. however, That among those present are the Minister of Education and Culture, who is Chairman of the Board, or the President, who acts as presiding officer in the former's absence. All processes against the State College shall be served on the President of the State College or his duly authorized representative.

SEC. 7. The members of the governing board shall not receive compensation but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in their attendance of meetings or other official functions authorized by the Board.

SEC. 8. The head of the College shall be known as the President of the Southern Luzon Polytechnic College, who shall be appointed by the President of the Philippines upon recommendation of the Minister of Education and Culture after consultation has been made with the Board of Trustees. He shall serve for a term of six (6) years. In case of vacancy by reason of death, absence or resignation, the Minister of Education and Culture shall have the authority to designate an Officer-in-Charge of the State College pending the appointment of the President.

The powers and duties of the President of the State College, in addition to those enumerated in the succeeding section, shall be those normally pertaining to the Office of the President of a state college.

SEC. 9. Specifically, the President of the State College shall have the following powers and duties, in addition to those normally appertaining to the Office of the President of a State College :

- a. He shall be the chief executive officer of the College. As such, progressive and dynamic, intellectual and administrative leadership in the College is expected of him and vested in him;
- b. He shall be the head of the College faculties and any unit or branch thereof;
- c. He shall have the general supervision over all academic as well as business or financial operations of the State College ;
- d. He shall promulgate and enforce general policies affecting any unit of the College, and take such actions which in his judgment are necessary for the protection of property and general interest of the State College, students and personnel and for the operation of the State College as a whole, and shall inform the Board on all matters relating to the operation and welfare of the State College;
- e. He shall appoint qualified persons to fill all vacancies and new positions subject to the approval of the Board and make such other arrangements to meet emergencies occurring between meetings of the Board so that the work of the College shall not suffer;
- f. He shall institute disciplinary action against any member of the State College personnel, faculty as well as any student of the State College whose actions adversely affect the general interest of the State College;
- g. He shall decide appeals in controversies between ranking officials of the State College , his decisions being final and conclusive;
- h. He shall grant or deny sabbatical, maternity, vacation and sick leaves and leaves of absence with or without pay and/or extension of such leaves as well as tension of fellowships or any form of scholarship for a period not exceeding one academic year if the budget permits and for reasons he may deem satisfactory
- i. He shall make ad interim appointments;
- j. He shall grant or withhold permission to reveal confidential matters or information affecting the State College or any unit thereof, as well as any action taken by the Board of Trustees;
- k. He shall grant permission for the use of buildings and premises of the State College for academic, professional and scientific conventions, seminars for students and related activities, and to fix the fee therefor;
