Interpretation.

2. The expression "certified copy" means a copy of a register certified in accordance with the law relating to the registration of instruments affecting land.

Claim by Crown to unoccupied land.

3. Whenever the Director of Surveys and Lands shall be of opinion that any land is unoccupied land, it shall be lawful for him to cause such land to be marked out and a notice to be posted in some conspicuous part of such land, and such notice shall be in these words, viz.: "Claimed as Crown Land" and shall be signed by the Director of Surveys and Lands, and dated.

What is unoccupied land.

4. For the purposes of this Ordinance, all land shall be deemed to be unoccupied land where it is not proved, by the person claiming the same, that beneficial use thereof for cultivation or inhabitation, or for collecting or storing water, or for any industrial purposes, has been made for twelve years next prior to the commencement of this Ordinance:

Provided that the following lands shall not be deemed to be unoccupied land, namely— Exceptions.

(1) where the person claiming the same is able to produce the instrument or instruments, by virtue of which he is in possession thereof, or the register thereof, or a certified copy showing a title to such lands extending over a period of not less than twelve years prior to the commencement of this Ordinance;

(2) where the land forms part of the lands included in—

(a) The Public Register and plan of town lots of Freetown;

(b) The Public Register and plan of town and country lots of Bonthe;

(c) The Public Register and plan of town and country lots of York Island.

(3) Where the land is planted with banana, coffee, cocoa, gum, kola or plantain trees, or other trees of a permanent economic value.

5. Within a period of six months after the posting of the notice referred to in section 3 hereof, it shall be lawful for all persons claiming the land referred to in such section to send written notice to the Director of Surveys and Lands of their claims, and in such written notices the claimants shall set out the extent and boundaries of the lands claimed by them. Time for claimants to send in their claims.

6. (1) Whenever it appears to the Supreme Court that any person is wrongfully claiming any unoccupied land, the Court, on the application of the Attorney General, may cause a summons to be served upon such person requiring him to appear before the Court at the time and place therein mentioned, and to produce the instrument or instruments, by virtue of which he claims such land, or the register thereof, or a certified copy, or to otherwise prove his right to claim the same. Persons wrongfully claiming lands.

(2) If, on hearing such summons, the Court shall find that such person is wrongfully claiming such land, the Court may order him to give up possession of the same, and shall issue such process as may be necessary for carrying its order into effect.
