- 1. These Rules may be cited as the Criminal Law (Identity Cards) Rules.

Definitions

2. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires —

“Commissioner” means the Commissioner of National Registration appointed under section 3 of the National Registration Act (Cap. 201);

“original identity card” means an identity card issued under the provisions of the National Registration Act or any regulations made thereunder to a person directed to be subject to the supervision of the police under the provisions of the Act, and includes any identity card issued under any written law in force in Malaysia but does not include a special identity card;

“special identity card” means an identity card issued under rule 3 to replace an original identity card.

Register and special identity card

3. When a person is directed to be subject to the supervision of the police under section 30(1)(b) or 32(1) of the Act, the Commissioner of Police or any police officer duly authorised by him may —

- (a) enter the name of that person in a register maintained for the purpose by the police; and
- (b) take possession of the original identity card of that person and shall send that original identity card together with a request to the Commissioner to issue a special identity card to replace the original identity card. Such special identity card shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of the National Registration Regulations (Cap. 201, Rg 2), and subject to such other directions as the Minister may from time to time issue.

[S 872/2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Commissioner to retain all original identity cards

4. The Commissioner shall retain all original identity cards which have been replaced by special identity cards.

Removal of name from register and return of original identity card

5. When an order directing a person to be subject to the supervision of the police under section 30(1)(b) or 32(1) of the Act has expired or is cancelled, that person may make application personally or in writing to the Commissioner of Police for the removal of his name from the register and for the return of his original identity card. On receipt of such application, the Commissioner of Police or any police officer duly authorised by him shall —
