Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Singapore Institute of Technology Act.

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires —

“Board” means the Board of Trustees of the university company referred to in its constituent documents;

“constituent documents”, in relation to the university company, means the memorandum of association and articles of association of the university company;

“university company” means the company limited by guarantee incorporated under the Companies Act (Cap. 50) on 15 September 2009 under the name “Singapore Institute of Technology”.

Function of university company

3. The function of the university company is to pursue, within the limits of the financial resources available to it, the objects provided by its constituent documents and, in particular, to confer and award degrees, diplomas and certificates, including honorary degrees and other distinctions.

Accountability and evaluation

4.—(1) The university company shall comply with the accountability framework set out by way of any agreement in writing between the university company and the Minister or any person authorised by him.

(2) The university company shall evaluate the performance of its activities in accordance with such quality assurance framework as the Minister may determine.

(3) The university company shall participate in the evaluation of its activities by such external review panel as may be commissioned by the Minister from time to time.

Directions in respect of policies on higher education in Singapore

5.—(1) The Minister may, in consultation with the university company, establish such policies on higher education in Singapore
