PART 1

AMENDMENTS TO COPYRIGHT ACT

Division 1 — Phase 1 Amendments

New section 140AA

10 2. The Copyright Act (Cap. 63) is amended by inserting, immediately after section 140A, the following section:

“Delegation of Director-General’s powers

15 140AA. The Director-General may delegate to a senior officer of customs (within the meaning of section 3(1) of the Customs Act) any of the powers of the Director-General under this Division (except the power of delegation conferred by this section), subject to such conditions or restrictions as the Director-General may determine.”.

Amendment of section 140C

3. Section 140C of the Copyright Act is amended —

20 (a) by deleting the words “or expense it is likely to incur as a result of the seizure of the copies” in paragraph (a) and substituting the words “or reasonable expense it is likely to incur in relation to the seizure, storage and disposal of the copies,”; and

25 (b) by inserting, immediately after the word “seizure” in the section heading, the words “, storage and disposal”.

New sections 140EA and 140EB

4. The Copyright Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 140E, the following sections:

“Persons bound to give information or produce documents

140EA.—(1) At any time after copies of copyright material have been seized under section 140B(7), an authorised officer or a senior authorised officer who has reasonable cause to believe that a person has any information or document that the officer considers is relevant for any of the purposes in subsection (2), may require that person to provide to the officer that information or document at a time and place specified by the officer. 5

(2) The purposes mentioned in subsection (1) are —

(a) to enable the Director-General to satisfy a request under section 140EB (whether or not such a request has actually been received); 10

(b) to enable any action to be taken under this Division in relation to future shipments of goods; and

(c) for a statistical or research purpose. 15

(3) A person who —

(a) without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (1); or

(b) in purported compliance with such requirement, knowingly or recklessly provides any information or document that is false or misleading in a material particular, 20

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $6,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both. 25

(4) A person is not excused from providing any information or document in compliance with a requirement under subsection (1) on the ground that it might tend to incriminate the person.

(5) Where the person claims, before providing any information or document pursuant to a requirement under subsection (1), that it might tend to incriminate the person, then the information or document is not admissible in evidence against the person in criminal proceedings other than proceedings for an offence under subsection (3). 30
