

Control of Essential Supplies Bill

Table of Contents

Bill No: 59/1973

Read the first time: 30th November 1973

Long Title

Enacting Formula

Part I PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

2 Interpretation

3 Appointment of officers

4 Responsibilities of officers

5 Declaration of controlled and rationed articles

6 Regulations

Part II POWERS OF CONTROLLER

7 Licences and permits to sell controlled articles

8 Power of Controller to obtain information

9 Power of Controller to enter premises

10 Power of arrest, seizure, investigation and prosecution

11 Powers of Controller to take possession of controlled articles and to give orders and directions

12 Power of Controller to sell animals or perishable, deleterious or hazardous articles

13 Delegation of powers

Part III OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

14 Prohibition against selling greater quantity of controlled articles than required for ordinary use

15 Prohibition of concealment or destruction of controlled articles

16 Offence to sell controlled articles without a licence or permit

17 Retailers to display licence and list of controlled and rationed articles

18 Supply of rationed articles

19 Illegal conditions

20 Removal of controlled articles from business premises and storage of controlled articles in premises other than licensed business premises, and dealing in controlled articles otherwise than in normal course of business

21 Unlawful possession of controlled articles

22 Penalties

23 Saving

Part IV MISCELLANEOUS AND REPEAL

24 Minister may appoint boards and committees

25 Burden of proof

26 Power of court to confiscate

27 Jurisdiction of courts

28 Joinder of offences

29 Composition of offences

30 Protection of informers

31 Regulations to be presented to Parliament

32 Repeal and savings

Explanatory Statement

Expenditure of Public Money

Control of Essential Supplies Bill

Bill No. 59/1973

Read the first time on 30th November 1973.

An Act to provide for the control and rationing of essential supplies and to repeal the Food Control Act (Chapter 246 of the Revised Edition) and the Control of Petroleum Fuel and Lubricants Act (Chapter 242 of the Revised Edition).

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows: —

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Control of Essential Supplies Act, 1973.

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires —

“animal” includes birds, reptiles, fish and every kind of vertebrate animal and the young thereof, and the eggs of birds, reptiles and fish;

“article” includes every kind or description of thing or commodity whatsoever;

“controlled article” means any article or food, or any kind or type of article or food, which has been declared to be a controlled article by an order under section 5, and includes a rationed article;

“Controller” means the officer appointed to be Controller of Supplies under section 3 and includes a Deputy Controller of Supplies, an Assistant Controller of Supplies and any person to whom the Controller has delegated any of his powers, duties or functions in accordance with section 13, to the extent of that delegation;

“food” includes any animal, whether alive or dead, and any substance or commodity which is used as food by man, or which is used for feeding any animal which serves some purpose for the use of man, whether as food or otherwise, or which ordinarily enters into the composition or preparation of human food or of the food of any such animal;

“licensed premises” means any premises in respect of which a licence issued under section 7 is in force;

“offence under this Act” includes any contravention of or failure to comply with any order or regulation made under this Act and any contravention of or failure to comply with the terms and conditions of any licence or permit issued or authority granted under this Act or the regulations made thereunder and any failure to comply with any request or direction lawfully made or given thereunder;

“officer of customs” has the same meaning as in the Customs Act (Cap. 133);

“rationed article” means any article or food, or any kind or type of article or food, which has been declared to be a rationed article by an order made under section 5;

“retail dealing” includes every sale of any article or food other than wholesale

- dealings;
- “sell” includes barter or exchange;
- “senior officer of customs” has the same meaning as in the Customs Act;
- “supplies” includes every kind and type of article or food whatsoever;
- “supplies officer” means any officer appointed under section 3;
- “wholesale dealing” means any sale of any article or food in whatever quantity for resale in the same form or state or as part of a manufactured product.

Appointment of officers

3. The Minister may appoint by name or office a Controller of Supplies, Deputy Controllers of Supplies, Assistant Controllers of Supplies and such other officers as he may consider necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.

Responsibilities of officers

4.—(1) The Controller shall, subject to the general direction and control of the Minister, perform the duties and exercise the rights and powers imposed and conferred upon him by this Act.

(2) The Deputy Controllers of Supplies, Assistant Controllers of Supplies and all other officers appointed under section 3 shall be under the direction and control of the Controller.

(3) All officers appointed under section 3 shall be deemed to be public servants for the purposes of the Penal Code (Cap. 103).

Declaration of controlled and rationed articles

5. The President may, by order published in the Gazette, declare any article or food to be a controlled article or to be a rationed article or both.

Regulations

6.—(1) The Minister may make regulations generally for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (1), any regulations made under this section may provide for —

- (a) prohibiting, either absolutely or subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, the purchase or sale of any controlled article without the