Singapore Mariners' Club Bill

Bill No. 5/1970

Read the first time on 9th March 1970.

An Act to incorporate the Singapore Mariners' Club and to repeal the Singapore Asian Seamen's Club Incorporation Ordinance (Chapter 319 of the Revised Edition).

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows: —

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Singapore Mariners' Club Act, 1970.

Constitution of body corporate

2.—(1) There shall be constituted in Singapore a body corporate under the name of “the Singapore Mariners' Club” (hereinafter in this Act referred to as “the corporation”).

(2) The corporation may sue or be sued in its said name and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and may from time to time make, change, alter and make anew the said seal as the corporation may deem fit.

Powers

3. The corporation may acquire, purchase, lease, take hold and enjoy movable and immovable property of every description, and subject as hereinafter provided may sell, convey, assign, surrender and yield up, mortgage, demise, reassign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any movable and immovable property vested in the corporation upon such terms as the corporation may deem fit.

Objects and general purposes

4. The objects and general purposes of the corporation are —

- (a) to establish and maintain a Club and, if necessary branches thereof, for members of the mercantile marine;
- (b) to erect buildings on any immovable property of the corporation for the purpose of such a Club or branches, or for the purpose of developing the property of the corporation, and to maintain repair, alter and reconstruct any such buildings;
- (c) to provide board and accommodation for members of the mercantile
