Conditions for public speaking

3.—(1) An individual who engages in public speaking at an assembly or procession in the Speakers' Corner area (whether or not in combination with a play-reading, recital, performance or an exhibition) must —

- (a) be a citizen of Singapore; and
- (b) comply with the conditions stated in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) For sub-paragraph (1)(b), the conditions are —

- (a) the individual must not, while engaging in public speaking —
  - (i) speak about a matter that relates, directly or indirectly, to any religious belief or to religion generally; or
  - (ii) speak about a matter or in a way that may cause feelings of enmity, hatred, ill-will or hostility between different racial or religious groups in Singapore;
- (b) the individual must, while engaging in public speaking, use an official language of Singapore, or a related dialect; and
- (c) the individual must not, at any time before, during or after public speaking at the assembly or procession, display or exhibit, or cause to be displayed or exhibited, any banner, flag, poster, placard, photograph, film, sign, writing or other visual representation or paraphernalia, containing violent, lewd or obscene material.

(3) An individual who fails to comply with sub-paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(4) In this paragraph, “public speaking” includes —

- (a) giving a lecture, talk or address; or
- (b) participating in a public debate or discussion.

Conditions for organisers of demonstrations

4.—(1) An individual who organises a demonstration in the Speakers' Corner area (whether or not as part of an assembly or procession or in combination with a play-reading, recital, performance or an exhibition) must —

(a) be a citizen of Singapore; and

(b) comply with the conditions stated in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) For sub-paragraph (1)(b), the conditions are —

(a) the individual must ensure that —

(i) the demonstration does not deal with a matter that relates, directly or indirectly, to any religious belief or to religion generally; or

(ii) the demonstration is not about a matter, or is not conducted in a way, that may cause feelings of enmity, hatred, ill-will or hostility between different racial or religious groups in Singapore;

(b) the individual, or an authorised agent of the individual, must be present at all times during the demonstration;

(c) the individual, or an authorised agent of the individual, must ensure that only individuals who are citizens of Singapore or permanent residents of Singapore participate in the demonstration; and

(d) the individual must not, at any time before, during or after the demonstration, display or exhibit, or cause to be displayed or exhibited, any banner, flag, poster, placard, photograph, film, sign, writing or other visual representation or paraphernalia, containing violent, lewd or obscene material.

(3) An individual who fails to comply with sub-paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.
