In exercise of the powers conferred by section 14 of the Public Order Act, the Minister for Home Affairs makes the following Order:

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Public Order (Unrestricted Area) (No. 2) Order 2015 and comes into operation on 12 September 2015.

Unrestricted area

2. The public place known as Speakers' Corner in Hong Lim Park and described in the Schedule (in this Order called the Speakers' Corner area) is, under section 14(1) of the Act, designated to be an area where assemblies or processions may be held without a notice being given or a permit being granted under sections 6 and 7 of the Act.

Conditions for public speaking

3.—(1) An individual who engages in public speaking at an assembly or procession in the Speakers' Corner area (whether or not in combination with a play-reading, recital, performance or an exhibition) must —

- (a) be a citizen of Singapore; and
- (b) comply with the conditions stated in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) For sub-paragraph (1)(b), the conditions are —

- (a) the individual must not, while engaging in public speaking —
  - (i) speak about a matter that relates, directly or indirectly, to any religious belief or to religion generally; or
  - (ii) speak about a matter or in a way that may cause feelings of enmity, hatred, ill-will or hostility between different racial or religious groups in Singapore;
- (b) the individual must, while engaging in public speaking, use an official language of Singapore, or a related dialect; and
- (c) the individual must not display or exhibit, or cause to be displayed or exhibited, any banner, flag, poster, placard, photograph, film, sign, writing or other visual representation or paraphernalia, containing violent, lewd or obscene material (whether before, during or after public speaking at the assembly or procession).

(3) An individual who fails to comply with sub-paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(4) In this paragraph, “public speaking” includes —

- (a) giving a lecture, talk or address; or
- (b) participating in a public debate or discussion.
