

Employment (First-Aid Equipment) Regulations 1996

Table of Contents

Enacting Formula

1

2

3

4

5

No. S 419

EMPLOYMENT ACT (CHAPTER 91)

EMPLOYMENT (FIRST-AID EQUIPMENT) REGULATIONS 1996

In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 93 and 139 of the Employment Act, the Minister for Labour hereby makes the following Regulations:

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Employment (First-Aid Equipment) Regulations 1996 and shall come into operation on 1st October 1996.

2. In these Regulations, “place of employment” does not include a factory as defined in the Factories Act [Cap. 104].

3.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), an employer shall, for every 200 or less workmen employed by him, provide at the place of employment the following quantities and types of first-aid equipment:

(a) 20 individually wrapped sterile adhesive dressings;