BUILDING CONTROL ACT

(CHAPTER 29)

(Original Enactment: Act 9 of 1989)

An Act relating to bills of sale.

[1st May 1989]

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Bills of Sale Act.

Application of this Act

2.—(1) This Act shall apply to every bill of sale, whether the same is absolute or subject or not subject to any trust whereby the holder or grantee has power, either with or without notice and either immediately or at any future time, to seize or take possession of any personal chattels comprised in or made subject to such bill of sale, but shall not, except as in this Act expressly mentioned, apply to any mortgages or debentures issued by any incorporated company and secured upon the stock or goods, chattels, and effects of such company.

[5/2009]

(2) This Act shall not apply to a bill of sale executed at any time on or after the date of commencement of the International Interests in Aircraft Equipment Act 2009 (Act 5 of 2009) to the extent that any interest therein is capable of being registered under that Act.

[5/2009]

(3) In subsection (2), “registered” has the same meaning as in section 2(1) of the International Interests in Aircraft Equipment Act 2009.

[5/2009]

Interpretation

- 3.—(1) In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context —

“bill of sale” includes bills of sale, assignments, transfers, declarations of trust without transfer, inventories of goods with receipt thereto attached, or receipts for purchase moneys of goods, and other assurances of personal chattels, and also powers of attorney, authorities, or licences to take possession of personal chattels as security for any debt, and also any agreement, whether intended or
