

Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (Pilotage) Regulations

Table of Contents

1 Citation and application

2 Definitions

3 Duty to exhibit required flags and lights

4 Pilot's duties in relation to vessel proceeding to Quarantine Anchorage

5 Pilot to carry licence and other documents

6 Pilot to be conversant with laws and duties

7 Refusal to conduct vessels

8 Notification of conditions detrimental to safety

9 Particulars to be ascertained by pilot

10 Overloaded vessel

11 Conduct of vessel with dangerous cargoes on board

12 Due care and diligence to be exercised

13 Defective or damaged buoys and beacons

14 Impediments or alterations in channel or landmark

15 Pilot to remain on board

16 Pilot to obtain documents

17 Pilot to be medically fit

18 Pilotage Committee

19 Compliance with Regulations and orders

20 Report on circumstances when master assumes conduct of vessel from pilot

21 Care that vessel does not run aground

22 Report for contravention of Port Regulations

23 Communication equipment to be in good working order

24 Unauthorised persons

25 Unauthorised goods

26 Annual medical examination

27 Savings

Legislative History

MARITIME AND PORT AUTHORITY OF SINGAPORE ACT
(CHAPTER 170A, SECTION 76(1))

MARITIME AND PORT AUTHORITY OF SINGAPORE
(PILOTAGE) REGULATIONS

Rg 5

G.N. No. S 185/1997

REVISED EDITION 2000

(30th April 2000)

[9th April 1997]

Citation and application

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (Pilotage) Regulations.

(2) These Regulations shall apply to any pilotage district.

Definitions

2. In these Regulations —

“Collision Regulations” means the Merchant Shipping (Prevention of Collisions at Sea) Regulations (Cap. 179, Rg 10);

“dangerous cargoes” has the same meaning as in regulation 2 of the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (Port) Regulations (Rg 7);

“pilot” means an authorised pilot;

“Port Health Officer” has the same meaning as in the Infectious Diseases Act (Cap. 137).

Duty to exhibit required flags and lights

3.—(1) There shall be exhibited on a vessel engaged on pilotage duty —

(a) during the hours between 0700 hours and 1900 hours, a red and white flag 1.8 metres by 1.2 metres in size —

(i) showing the letter “P” coloured blue in the centre; and

(ii) divided horizontally with the upper half of the flag coloured white and the lower half coloured red; and

(b) during the hours between 1900 hours and 0700 hours, 2 all-round lights at or near the masthead and in a vertical line, the upper light being white and the lower red.

(2) There shall be exhibited on a vessel requiring the service of a pilot —

(a) during the hours between 0700 hours and 1900 hours, the flag “G” of the International Code of Signals 1969; and

(b) during the hours between 1900 hours and 0700 hours, 3 all-round lights in a vertical line —

(i) the highest and middle lights to be white and the lowest light to be red; and

- (ii) the vertical spacings between the lights to be in accordance with the Collision Regulations.

(3) During the hours between 0700 hours and 1900 hours, there shall be exhibited on a vessel under pilotage the flag “H” of the International Code of Signals 1969.

(4) It is the duty of the master of a vessel engaged on pilotage duty to ensure that the flag and lights are appropriately exhibited.

Pilot’s duties in relation to vessel proceeding to Quarantine Anchorage

4.—(1) A pilot may board any vessel displaying an international quarantine signal for the purpose of piloting her to the Quarantine Anchorage.

(2) Where the master of a vessel has reported a suspected case of plague on board his vessel, the pilot —

- (a) shall not allow any other person in his launch to board the vessel;
- (b) shall not leave the vessel except with the permission of the Port Health Officer; and
- (c) shall submit himself to vaccination, or other quarantine precautions, as the nature of the case may require.

Pilot to carry licence and other documents

5. A pilot shall when on duty —

- (a) carry his licence with him and such other documents as the Port Master may direct; and
- (b) make the licence and documents referred to in paragraph (a) available for inspection by the master of any vessel employing him.

Pilot to be conversant with laws and duties

6. A pilot shall make himself conversant, and shall comply, with all written laws and the directives of the Authority relating to his duties.

Refusal to conduct vessels

7. A pilot who refuses the conduct of any vessel for any reason shall give his reasons in writing to the Port Master within 24 hours of the refusal.