1. These Regulations may be cited as the Parliamentary Pensions (Pensionable Allowances) Regulations.

Allowances to be pensionable allowances

2.—(1) The allowances which are payable as annual wage increases for the year 1978 and subsequent years pursuant to the recommendations of the National Wages Council (excluding any additional allowances constituting second tier payments) shall be pensionable allowances to be taken into account in computing any pension or gratuity under the Act.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the following payments are not pensionable
