Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Essential (Detained Non-Citizens) Regulations.

Definitions

2. In these Regulations —

“advisory board” has the same meaning as in the Internal Security Act [Cap. 143];

“detained person” means a person who is detained in a place of detention in pursuance of an order under section 8(1)(a) or a direction under section 8(2) of the Internal Security Act;

“place of detention” means any place directed by the Minister under section 8(4) of the Internal Security Act to be a place in which any person may be detained.

Modification of section 11 of Cap. 143 in its application to non-citizens

3. Section 11 of the Internal Security Act shall have effect in relation to detained persons who are not citizens as if in subsections (1) and (2)(a) the words “to an advisory board” and in subsection 2 (b)(iii) the words “to the advisory board” were omitted.

Sections 12 and 13 and Cap. 143, R 2 not to apply to non-citizens

4. Sections 12 and 13 of the Act and the Internal Security (Detained Persons Advisory Board) Rules, shall not apply to detained persons who are not citizens.

Representations against detention order

5. Any detained person who is not a citizen may, within two months from the date of the order for his detention, make written representations to the Minister against the order, and the officer-in-charge of the place of detention shall forward any such representations to the Minister without unnecessary delay.

Minister may refer representations to advisory board

6.—(1) The Minister may refer any representations received by him under regulation 5 to an advisory board, which shall consider the representations and make recommendations thereon to the Minister.

(2) The advisory board may, by notice in writing to the officer-in-charge of the place of detention in which the person making the representations is detained, cause that
