

Singapore Armed Forces (Disciplinary Barracks) Regulations

Table of Contents

1 Citation

2 Definitions

3 Place of custody of person sentenced to a disciplinary barrack

4 Women

5 Temporary place of custody

6 Separation of persons in custody

7 General orders

8 Admission to disciplinary barracks

9 Accommodation

10 Permitted articles

11 Searches

12 Food

13 Prohibition on smoking

14 Letters

15 Visits

16 Visits by counsel

17 Physical restraint

18 Training and work of persons serving detention

19 Unauthorised work

20 Escape from custody

21 Temporary release

22 Remission

23 Offences and punishments

24 Use of force

25 Medical observations

26 Infliction of corporal punishment

27 Time of executing sentence

28 Medical examination before infliction of caning

29 Complaints

30 Board of Visitors

31 Visits by Board of Visitors

32 Detention in prison

33 Form of committal

34 Publication

FIRST SCHEDULE A Medical Certificate of Fitness 1

SECOND SCHEDULE B

THIRD SCHEDULE C Temporary Release from Special Detention in A Disciplinary Barrack

FOURTH SCHEDULE D Restricted Diet

FIFTH SCHEDULE E Committal Order to Military/civil Prison or Detention Barrack

SIXTH SCHEDULE F Order for the Return of Person Sentenced to Special Detention in A Disciplinary Barrack

SEVENTH SCHEDULE G Committal Order to A Disciplinary Barrack

Legislative History

SINGAPORE ARMED FORCES ACT
(CHAPTER 295, SECTION 205)

SINGAPORE ARMED FORCES
(DISCIPLINARY BARRACKS) REGULATIONS

Rg 8

REVISED EDITION 1990

(25th March 1992)

[24th October 1975]

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Singapore Armed Forces (Disciplinary Barracks) Regulations.

Definitions

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires —

“Board” means the Board of Visitors appointed under regulation 30;

“commandant” means an officer appointed by the Director of Manpower to be in charge of a disciplinary barrack;

“Director of Manpower” means the person appointed to exercise such powers and functions as are conferred or imposed on the Director of Manpower by these Regulations;

“person serving detention” means a person under sentence of special detention in a disciplinary barrack imposed by a subordinate military court.

Place of custody of person sentenced to a disciplinary barrack

3. A person sentenced by a subordinate military court to special detention in a disciplinary barrack shall serve such sentence in a disciplinary barrack.

Women

4. A woman serving detention shall be kept under such conditions as the Director of Manpower may, with due regard to decency and the special position of the woman, direct.

Temporary place of custody

5.—(1) Where a person is sentenced to special detention in a disciplinary barrack when his unit is engaged in military operations, and he cannot be delivered immediately into a disciplinary barrack, he may be kept in custody in such place as his unit commander may direct, except that he shall be kept under conditions which are not detrimental to his health and that he shall be delivered into a disciplinary barrack as soon as possible.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall also apply to —

- (a) persons serving detention in a vessel at sea; and
- (b) persons serving detention outside Singapore.

Seperation of persons in custody

6. Wherever practicable persons serving detention who are above the rank of sergeant shall be kept separately from other persons serving detention.

General orders

7. The commandant may, subject to the Act and these Regulations, issue general orders in respect of disciplinary barracks and persons serving detention.

Admission to disciplinary barracks

8. On the admission to a disciplinary barrack of a person sentenced to special detention therein the following procedures shall apply:

- (a) the commandant or a person on the staff of the disciplinary barrack shall examine whether there is a lawful authority for detaining the person therein;
- (b) the person serving detention shall, with due regard to decency, be searched; and any article or document which he is not allowed to keep in his possession shall be taken from him and kept in safe custody; and a list of those articles or documents authenticated by the signature of the person responsible for the taking of such articles or documents shall be kept and a copy thereof shall be delivered on demand to the person sentenced to special detention in the disciplinary barrack; and
- (c) within 24 hours after admission, the person serving detention shall be examined by a medical officer and shall not undergo any form of work or training before a medical officer certifies in the form set out in Schedule A that he is fit for such work or training.

Accommodation

9.—(1) Two persons shall not be kept in custody in one cell in a disciplinary barrack.

(2) There shall be either one person or at least 3 persons in a cell referred to in paragraph (1).

Permitted articles

10.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), a person serving detention shall be allowed to keep in his cell necessary clothing, boots, mess-tins, cleaning and toilet kits.

(2) Knives, razors, forks and spoons shall not be allowed to be kept in the cell of a person serving detention.

(3) Persons serving detention shall not be allowed to wear decorations, insignias or badges of rank.

(4) The commandant may permit a person serving detention to keep in such person's cell any article in addition to those mentioned in paragraph (1).

Searches

11. The commandant may order a person serving detention to be searched at any time.

Food

12. Subject to regulation 23(1)(a), a person serving detention shall be provided with food similar to that provided to a serviceman not in custody.