MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE PRESCRIPTION IN CIVIL AND CRIMINAL MATTERS (SEXUAL OFFENCES) AMENDMENT BILL, 2019

1. PURPOSE OF BILL

- 1.1 The Constitutional Court, in Levenstein and Others v Estate of the Late Sidney Lewis Frankel and Others 2018 ZACC 16 ("the Levenstein matter"), declared on 14 June 2018 that section 18 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), is inconsistent with the Constitution to the extent that it bars, in all circumstances, the right to institute a prosecution for all sexual offences, other than those listed in section 18(f), (h) and (i) of the said Act, after the lapse of a period of 20 years from the time when the offence was committed. The Constitutional Court afforded Parliament 24 months to enact remedial legislation, that is before 14 June 2020.
- 1.2 The Criminal Procedure Amendment Bill, 2018, was introduced in Parliament on 30 May 2018, before the Constitutional Court delivered its judgment. The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development briefed the Portfolio Committee of Justice and Correctional Services on that Bill, but the Portfolio Committee did not invite interested parties to comment on the Bill.
- 1.3 On 16 January 2019, the Minister informed the Speaker that the applicants in the Levenstein matter have decided to challenge the constitutional validity of section 12(4) of the Prescription Act, 1969.
- 1.4 The Speaker was informed that the Criminal Procedure Amendment Bill, 2018, will be withdrawn and that a single Amendment Bill will be prepared to deal with proposed amendments to section 18 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, and section 12 of the Prescription Act, 1969.

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

- 2.1 Section 12 of the Prescription Act, 1969 (Act No. 68 of 1969), regulates when prescription in civil matters begins to run. Section 12(4) provides that prescription does not commence to run in respect of a debt based on the commission of, among others, certain sexual offences during the time in which the creditor is unable to institute proceedings because of his or her mental or psychological condition.
- 2.2 Clause 1 of the Bill aims to amend section 12(4) of the Prescription Act, 1969, in order to ensure that all sexual offences, whether they have been committed under common or statutory law, are included in that section.
- 2.3 Section 13 of the Prescription Act, 1969, deals with the delay of the completion of prescription in certain circumstances, for example where the creditor is a minor, is "insane" or is a person under curatorship.
- 2.4 Clause 2 of the Bill aims to amend section 13 of the Prescription Act, 1969, to make provision for those cases where victims of sexual offences are in a position to institute proceedings, but then suffer relapses which prevent them from instituting proceedings for a period. Clause 2 aims to replace the term "insane" with the phrase "mental or intellectual disability, disorder or incapacity".
- 2.5 Section 18 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, regulates the prescription of the right to institute prosecutions after a period of 20 years has lapsed after alleged commission of certain offences. A prosecution may, in terms of section 18, only be instituted after a period of 20 years has lapsed after the alleged commission, among others, of—
 - (i) rape or compelled rape as contemplated in section 3 or 4 of the Criminal Law (Sexual Offences and Related Matters) Amendment Act, 2007 (Act No 32 of 2007), respectively; and
