Federal Act
on the Swiss National Park in the Canton of Graubünden (National Park Act)

of 19 December 1980 (Status as at 1 January 2017)

---

The Federal Assembly of the Swiss Confederation, on the basis of Article 78 paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Federal Constitution<sup>1,2</sup> and having considered the Dispatch of the Federal Council dated 12 September 1979<sup>3</sup>,
decrees:

Art. 1 Nature and purpose

<sup>1</sup> The Swiss National Park in the Engadin and Münstertal in the Canton of Graubünden is a reserve where nature is protected against any human intrusions and in particular where all flora and fauna is allowed to develop naturally. Intrusions shall be permitted only if they directly serve the upkeep of the Park.

<sup>2</sup> The National Park shall be open to the general public to the extent permitted by the Park Regulations. The Park shall be the subject of continuous scientific research.

Art. 2 Park authority

The authority responsible for the National Park is the «Swiss National Park» public-law foundation («the Foundation») with registered office in Bern.

Art. 3 Funding

<sup>2</sup> In order to fulfil its tasks, the Foundation shall use the revenues from the Foundation assets and other income.

AS 1981 236

<sup>2</sup> Amended by Annex No 1 of the Federal Act of 18 March 2016, in force since 1 Jan. 2017 (AS 2016 3207; BBl 2014 4909).

<sup>3</sup> The Confederation shall contribute an annual sum to the costs of management, supervision and maintenance.

<sup>5</sup> The Foundation assets may only be used in exceptional cases. They must not fall below 1,000,000 francs.

Art. 4 Federal National Park Commission

<sup>2</sup> Three members shall be proposed by the Swiss Nature Protection League, two by the Swiss Academy of Sciences, and one member each by the Canton of Graubünden and the park communes. Two members shall represent the Swiss Confederation.

<sup>3</sup> The Federal Council shall appoint the president of the Federal National Park Commission. Otherwise the Commission shall constitute itself. It shall appoint the secretary, the accountant and other administrative personnel.

Art. 5 Tasks

<sup>1</sup> The Federal National Park Commission shall ensure the upkeep and promotion of the National Park. It shall in particular:

- a. cooperate with the canton and the communes;
- b. manage, supervise and maintain the Park and its facilities;
- c. inform the general public about the nature and purpose of the National Park as well as about the regulations for visitors;
- d. encourage cooperation between Park managers and research scientists.

<sup>2</sup> The Federal National Park Commission shall ensure the legal protection of the territory of the Park. It shall enter into contracts for the fulfilment of the objects of the Foundation. Contracts on the safeguarding of the Park territory, its reduction or expansion, together with any payments required in connection therewith shall require the approval of the Federal Council.

Art. 6 Legal succession

<sup>1</sup> The Foundation shall assume the rights and obligations that relate to the National Park and which were held by the Confederation prior to the commencement of this Act.

<sup>4</sup> The title of the administrative unit was modified by Art. 16 para. 3 of the Publications Ordinance of 17 Nov. 2004 (AS 2004 4937). This modification has been made throughout the text.
