CINEMA THEATRE RULES

Chapter 8.02.02

2020 Revised Edition

CINEMA THEATRE RULES

Made by the Prime Minister on 25th February, 1927¹

Commencement [25th February 1927]

1. These Rules may be cited as the Cinema Theatre Rules.

GENERAL SAFETY

2. No licence to conduct a cinema display shall be issued unless and until the applicant produces a certificate signed by the Minister responsible for Building Control stating —
 - (a) that the exits and seating arrangements of the building in which the applicant proposes to give the cinema display are in the opinion of the Cabinet so arranged as to provide easy and speedy egress from the building;
 - (b) that the rules made hereunder with regard to the electrical fittings and with regard to the avoidance of danger by fire have been complied with.

EXITS

3. Every building in which a cinema exhibition is given by a person duly licensed to give such exhibition under the Cinema Act shall be provided with exits in accordance with these rules.
