

Supply and Appropriation (Anticipation and Adjustments) Act 2022

2022 CHAPTER 8

An Act to authorise the use of resources for the years ending with 31 March 2021, 31 March 2022 and 31 March 2023; to authorise the issue of sums out of the Consolidated Fund for those years; and to appropriate the supply authorised by this Act for the years ending with 31 March 2021 and 31 March 2022. [15th March 2022]

WHEREAS the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled have resolved to authorise the use of resources and the issue of sums out of the Consolidated Fund towards making good the supply which they have granted to Her Majesty in this Session of Parliament:—

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Vote on Account for 2022-23

1 Vote on account for 2022-23

- (1) The use of resources for the year ending with 31 March 2023 is authorised up to the amount of £410,557,176,000.
- (2) Of the amount authorised by subsection \(1\)—
 - (a) £351,632,860,000 is authorised for use for current purposes, and
 - (b) £58,924,316,000 is authorised for use for capital purposes.
- (3) The Treasury may—
 - (a) issue money out of the Consolidated Fund, and
 - (b) apply it in the year ending with 31 March 2023 for expenditure authorised by Parliament, up to the amount of £361,722,188,000.

Supplementary provision for 2021-22

2 Authorisation of supplementary provision for 2021-22

- (1) The amount up to which the authorisation was conferred for the use of resources for the year ending with 31 March 2022 is to be treated as further increased by £320,020,642,000.
- (2) In relation to the further amount treated as authorised by subsection \(1\)—
 - (a) the amount up to which there is authorisation for use for current purposes is to be treated as further increased by £314,066,101,000, and
 - (b) the amount up to which there is authorisation for use for capital purposes is to be treated as further increased by £5,954,541,000.
- (3) The amount up to which authorisation was conferred on the Treasury—
 - (a) to issue money out of the Consolidated Fund, and
 - (b) to apply it in the year ending with 31 March 2022 for expenditure authorised by Parliament, is to be treated as further increased by £21,456,287,000.
- (4) The increases for which this section provides are to be treated as having had effect from the beginning of 1 April 2021.

3 Appropriation of supplementary provision for 2021-22

- (1) For the purposes of—
 - (a) appropriating the amount of resources the use of which for the year ending with 31 March 2022 is authorised by section 2\(1\), and
 - (b) appropriating the amount of money the issue of which out of the Consolidated Fund is authorised by section 2\(3\), the Main Estimates Act 2021 is to be treated as having effect with the adjustments provided for in Schedule 1 to this Act.
- (2) Schedule 1 specifies the amounts by which adjustments are to be treated as made to the amounts originally specified in the Scheduled Estimates in the Main Estimates Act 2021.
- (3) For the purpose of making the adjustments in Schedule 1—
 - (a) a negative adjustment has effect to reduce an amount of authorised expenditure and, where applied to an estimated surplus (which is expressed as if it were itself a negative amount), increases the amount of the surplus, and
 - (b) a positive adjustment has effect to increase an amount of authorised expenditure and, where applied to an estimated surplus, reduces it.
- (4) Accordingly—
 - (a) where an adjustment by a negative amount of more than the amount itself is made to an amount of authorised expenditure, what results is an estimated surplus, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) where an adjustment by a positive amount of more than the amount itself is made to the amount of an estimated surplus, what results is an amount of authorised expenditure.
- (5) Where, in Schedule 1, a description of matters to which expenditure may relate or from which income may arise (“description A”) differs from the description contained in the corresponding part of the Scheduled Estimates in the Main Estimates Act 2021 (“description B”), Schedule 1 has effect for adjusting that corresponding part by substituting description A for description B.
- (6) Where, in relation to a department, other person or service to which a Scheduled Estimate in the Main Estimates Act 2021 relates, Schedule 1 contains a new description of matters to which expenditure may relate or from which income may arise, Schedule 1 has effect for adjusting that Scheduled Estimate by treating the new description as included in it.
- (7) In this section—
 - “estimated surplus” has the same meaning as in the Main Estimates Act 2021;
 - “Main Estimates Act 2021” means the Supply and Appropriation (Main Estimates) Act 2021.
- (8) The adjustments made by virtue of this section are to be treated as having had effect from the beginning of 1 April 2021.

Excesses for 2020-21

4 Authorisation of excesses for 2020-21

- (1) The amount up to which authorisation was conferred for the use of resources for the year ending with 31 March 2021 is to be treated as further increased, for the purpose of making good excesses, by £144,494,000.
- (2) The further amount treated as authorised by subsection \(1\) is to be treated as authorised for use for current purposes.
- (3) The increases for which this section provides are to be treated as having had effect from the beginning of 1 April 2020.

5 Appropriation of excesses for 2020-21

- (1) For the purpose of appropriating the amount of resources the use of which for the year ending with 31 March 2021 is authorised by section 4(1), the Main Estimates Act 2020 is treated as having effect with the adjustments provided for in Schedule 2 to this Act.
- (2) Schedule 2 specifies the amounts by which adjustments are to be treated as made to the amounts specified in the Scheduled Estimates in the Main Estimates Act 2020 and to the amounts treated as so specified.
- (3) For the purpose of making the adjustments in Schedule 2 an adjustment has effect to increase an amount of authorised expenditure and, where applied to an estimated surplus, reduces it.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (4) Accordingly, where an adjustment of more than the amount itself is made to the amount of an estimated surplus, what results is an amount of authorised expenditure.
- (5) Where, in Schedule 2, a description of matters to which expenditure may relate or from which income may arise (“description A”) differs from the description contained in the corresponding part of the Scheduled Estimates in the Main Estimates Act 2020 (“description B”), Schedule 2 has effect for adjusting that corresponding part by substituting description A for description B.
- (6) Where, in relation to a department, other person or service to which a Scheduled Estimate in the Main Estimates Act 2020 relates, Schedule 2 contains a new description of matters to which expenditure may relate or from which income may arise, Schedule 2 has effect for adjusting that Scheduled Estimate by treating the new description as included in it.
- (7) In this section a reference to an amount treated as specified in a Scheduled Estimate is a reference to any amount treated as so specified in consequence of any adjustment made by virtue of the Supply and Appropriation (Anticipation and Adjustments) Act 2021, and references to adjusting such an amount are to be read accordingly.
- (8) In this section—
 - “estimated surplus” has the same meaning as in the Main Estimates Act 2020;
 - “Main Estimates Act 2020” means the Supply and Appropriation (Main Estimates) Act 2020.
- (9) The adjustments made by virtue of this section are to be treated as having had effect from the beginning of 1 April 2020.
