

Education and Training (Welfare of Children) Act 2021

2021 CHAPTER 16

an Act to impose duties on certain education and training providers in relation to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. [29th April 2021]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Welfare of children: 16 to 19 Academies and further education

- (1) The Education Act 2002 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 16 (terms on which financial assistance under section 14 is given), in subsection (1), for “subsection (2B)” substitute “—
 - (a) subsection (2B) (which relates to institutions within the higher education sector), and
 - (b) section 175(3B) (which relates to institutions in England that provide further education).”
- (3) In section 175 (duties of local authorities and governing bodies in relation to welfare of children) after subsection (3) insert—
 - “(3A) The proprietor of a 16 to 19 Academy must make arrangements to ensure that the proprietor's functions relating to the conduct of the Academy are exercised with a view to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children receiving education or training at the Academy.
 - (3B) The Secretary of State may not—
 - (a) enter into an agreement with the proprietor of an institution in England for the provision of further education, unless the agreement requires the proprietor to comply with the safeguarding duties, or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education and Training (Welfare of Children) Act 2021. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) give financial assistance under section 14 to the proprietor of an institution in England for the provision of further education unless the assistance is given on terms requiring the proprietor to comply with the safeguarding duties, but this subsection does not restrict the Secretary of State's powers to enter into an agreement with, or give financial assistance to, an institution to which subsection (3) or (3A) applies.

(3C) “The safeguarding duties” are—

- (a) a duty to make arrangements to ensure that the proprietor's functions relating to the conduct of the institution are exercised with a view to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children receiving education or training at the institution, and
- (b) a duty to have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State in considering what arrangements are required.”

(4) In subsection (4) of that section—

- (a) for “An authority or body” substitute “ A person ”;
- (b) for “(3)” substitute “ (3A) ”.

(5) In subsection (5) of that section, at the appropriate place insert—

““proprietor”, in relation to an institution that is not a school, means the person or body of persons responsible for the management of the institution.”

(6) In the heading of section 175 omit “of local authorities and governing bodies”.

2 Welfare of children: apprenticeships and technical education

(1) The Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 is amended as follows.

(2) In section 101 (financial resources: conditions), in subsection (1), after “conditions” insert “, subject to section 101A ”.

(3) After section 101 insert—

“101A Financial resources: welfare

(1) The Secretary of State may not provide financial resources to a person under—

- (a) section 100(1A) for the provision of training as part of a relevant English statutory apprenticeship, or
- (b) section 100(1B) for the provision of education or training as part of an approved technical education qualification or approved step towards occupational competence, unless the resources are provided subject to conditions requiring the person to comply with the safeguarding duties.

(2) “The safeguarding duties” are—

- (a) a duty to make arrangements to safeguard and promote the welfare of children receiving the education or training mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) (as the case may be), and
- (b) a duty to have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State in considering what arrangements are required.
