

Birmingham Commonwealth Games Act 2020

2020 CHAPTER 10

An Act to make provision about the Commonwealth Games that are to be held principally in Birmingham in 2022; and for connected purposes. [25th June 2020]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

ORGANISING COMMITTEE

1 Financial assistance

- (1) The Secretary of State may provide financial assistance to the Organising Committee—
  - (a) for the purpose of delivering the Games, or
  - (b) for any other purpose connected to, or arising from, the Games.
- (2) Financial assistance under subsection (1)—
  - (a) may take the form of grants, loans, guarantees or indemnities, and
  - (b) may be given subject to conditions (which may include conditions about repayment with or without interest).
- (3) In this Act—

the “Games” are the Commonwealth Games that are to be held principally in Birmingham in 2022;

“Games event” means—

  - (a) an event forming part of the Games (whether or not a sporting event), or

(b) any other event arranged by, or on behalf of, the Organising Committee; the “Organising Committee” is the organising committee formed as the private company limited by guarantee registered as “Birmingham Organising Committee for the 2022 Commonwealth Games Ltd”.

2 Annual reporting

- (1) As soon as is reasonably practicable after the end of each reporting period, the Organising Committee must send to the Secretary of State a report on the exercise of the Organising Committee's functions during the period.
- (2) The report must include—
  - (a) an assessment of the Organising Committee's progress towards delivery of the Games;
  - (b) details of what the Organising Committee has done to ensure that its delivery of the Games promotes the values of the Commonwealth Games Federation;
  - (c) details of what the Organising Committee has done to ensure that Games events are accessible to disabled people;
  - (d) details of what the Organising Committee has done to promote sustainability in its delivery of the Games;
  - (e) details of what the Organising Committee has done to maximise the benefits to be derived from the Games.
- (3) The reference in subsection (2) (b) to the values of the Commonwealth Games Federation is a reference to the values expressed in the constitution of the Commonwealth Games Federation, as amended from time to time.
- (4) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a copy of each report received by the Secretary of State under this section.
- (5) In this section “reporting period” means—
  - (a) the period beginning with the day on which this section comes into force and ending with 31 March 2021,
  - (b) the period beginning with 1 April 2021 and ending with 31 March 2022, and
  - (c) the period beginning with 1 April 2022 and ending with 31 December 2022.

PART 2

ASSOCIATION WITH THE GAMES

3 Unauthorised association with the Games

- (1) A person acting in the course of a business may not use any representation (of any kind) in a manner likely to suggest to the public that there is an association between the Games and—
  - (a) goods or services, or
  - (b) a person providing goods or services.
- (2) The following are examples of an association between the Games and a person providing goods or services—
  - (a) a contractual relationship;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Birmingham Commonwealth Games Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (b) a commercial relationship;
  - (c) a corporate or structural connection;
  - (d) the provision of financial or other assistance.
- (3) “Use” of a representation includes, among other things—
- (a) applying a representation to goods or documents;
  - (b) selling, offering, or exposing for sale goods that bear a representation;
  - (c) importing or exporting goods that bear a representation;
  - (d) providing or offering services by reference to a representation;
  - (e) promoting goods or services by reference to a representation.
- (4) A breach of subsection (1) is to be treated as though it were an infringement of an exclusive right of the Organising Committee to use any representation (of any kind) in the manner described in that subsection.
- (5) In an action for breach of subsection (1), the court may grant any relief that is available in respect of the infringement of a property right (whether by way of damages, injunction, accounts or otherwise).
- (6) In subsection (5), “court” means—
- (a) in England and Wales, the High Court,
  - (b) in Scotland, the Court of Session or the sheriff, and
  - (c) in Northern Ireland, the High Court or the county court.
- (7) Subsection (1) is—
- (a) subject to sections 4 and 5 (authorised association and other exceptions), and
  - (b) enforceable only by the Organising Committee in accordance with subsections (4) and (5) and sections 6 and 7.

4 Authorised association

- (1) Section 3(1) is not breached by the use of a representation in accordance with an authorisation granted by the Organising Committee.
- (2) An authorisation granted under this section may—
- (a) be granted in respect of a person or a description of person;
  - (b) be granted in respect of a description of representation;
  - (c) be subject to conditions;
  - (d) be revoked.
- (3) In considering whether or not to grant an authorisation under this section, the Organising Committee may have regard to, among other things, any agreements entered into (whether by the Secretary of State or otherwise) for the purposes of the Games.
- (4) An authorisation granted under this section must be in writing.

5 Exceptions to the prohibition on unauthorised association

Intellectual property rights

- (1) Section 3(1) is not breached by—

---

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Birmingham Commonwealth Games Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (a) the use of a trade mark registered under the Trade Marks Act 1994 for goods or services for which it is registered;
- (b) the use of a design registered under the Registered Designs Act 1949;
- (c) the exercise of another intellectual property right subsisting immediately before the day on which this Act is passed.

Continuous use

- (2) Section 3(1) is not breached by the use of a representation in any manner by a person acting in the course of a business if—
  - (a) immediately before 21 December 2017, the representation was used in that manner for the purpose of activities constituting the business, and
  - (b) the representation has continued to be used in that manner for that purpose since that day.

Fair use

- (3) Section 3(1) is not breached by—
  - (a) the use by a person of the person's name or address,
  - (b) the use of indications concerning—
    - (i) the kind, quality, quantity, intended purpose, value or geographical origin, or any other characteristic, of goods or services, or
    - (ii) the time of production of goods or of the provision of services, or
  - (c) the use of a representation for the purpose of identifying or referring to goods or services as those of a person authorised under section 4, provided, in each case, that the use is in accordance with honest practices in industrial or commercial matters.
- (4) Section 3(1) is not breached by the use of a representation—
  - (a) in a report of a Games event,
  - (b) for the purpose of sharing information about the Games,
  - (c) for the purpose of promoting—
    - (i) such a report, or
    - (ii) the sharing of such information, or
  - (d) as an incidental inclusion in a literary work, dramatic work, artistic work, sound recording, film or broadcast.
- (5) Any reference in subsection (4) to a report of a Games event or the sharing of information about the Games does not include a reference to material that is published or broadcast for the purpose of promoting something other than the Games.
- (6) Terms used in subsections (4)(d) and (5) and in Part 1 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 have the same meaning in those provisions as they have in that Part.

Dealings in authorised goods

- (7) Section 3(1) is not breached by the use of a representation in relation to goods (the “current use”) if—
  - (a) the goods bear the representation,
  - (b) they were put on the market in accordance with an authorisation granted by the Organising Committee under section 4, and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Birmingham Commonwealth Games Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (c) the current use is in accordance with that authorisation.

Organising Committee

- (8) Section 3(1) is not breached by the use of a representation by the Organising Committee.

Information society services

- (9) Schedule 1 contains exceptions relevant to providers of information society services.

6 Enforcement of section 3(1) in relation to goods and documents

- (1) A court may make any order falling within subsection (3) in respect of infringing goods or documents held by any person in the course of a business.
- (2) “Infringing goods or documents” means—
  - (a) goods or documents that bear a representation in breach of section 3(1), or
  - (b) things that have been specifically designed or adapted to produce such goods or documents.
- (3) The orders falling within this subsection are—
  - (a) an order that the infringing goods or documents be delivered up to—
    - (i) the Organising Committee, or
    - (ii) such other person as the court may direct;
  - (b) an order that the representation be erased, removed or obliterated from the infringing goods or documents;
  - (c) an order that the infringing goods or documents be returned to—
    - (i) the person from whom they were delivered up, or
    - (ii) any other person having an interest in them;
  - (d) an order that the infringing goods or documents be forfeited to—
    - (i) the Organising Committee, or
    - (ii) such other person as the court may direct;
  - (e) an order that the infringing goods or documents be destroyed.
- (4) No order for forfeiture or destruction may be made unless the court is satisfied that no other remedy available would be adequate to compensate the Organising Committee or protect its interests.
- (5) In this section, “court” has the meaning given by section 3(6).

7 Protections for persons with an interest in goods or documents

- (1) If the Organising Committee applies for an order under section 6—
  - (a) a copy of the application must be served on all identifiable persons having an interest in the infringing goods or documents;
  - (b) any person having an interest in the infringing goods or documents is entitled—
    - (i) to appear in proceedings under section 6 relating to the infringing goods or documents, and
