SCHEDULE Article 2

PART 1

EXCHANGE OF LETTERS BETWEEN THE UNITED KINGDOM AND JERSEY CONCERNING A TAX INFORMATION EXCHANGE AGREEMENT AND AN ARRANGEMENT AMENDING THE 1952 ARRANGEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO GOVERNMENTS FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBLE TAXATION AND THE PREVENTION OF FISCAL EVASION WITH RESPECT TO TAXES ON INCOME

Sir

I have the honour to propose to you –

- the Agreement between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and Jersey for the exchange of information relating to tax matters ("the Agreement") at Appendix 1 to this letter;
- that the Agreement shall have effect in accordance with Article 11 thereof;
- our mutual commitment to comply at the earliest date with our internal procedures required by our respective domestic law for the bringing into force of the Agreement, and to notify each other without delay through the formal channels when such procedures are completed.

I also have the honour to propose to you the Arrangement, further amending the 1952 Arrangement between Her Majesty's Government and the States of Jersey for the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion with respect to taxes on income ("the 1952 Arrangement"), at Appendix 2 to this letter and that this Arrangement shall have effect in accordance with paragraph 7 thereof.

With a view to further enhancing the level of cooperation between the United Kingdom and Jersey, I have the honour to propose that, as soon as possible, following the entry into force of the Agreement and the 1952 Arrangement, the Governments of Jersey and the United Kingdom will resume negotiations with a view to further modernising the existing bilateral arrangements for the avoidance of double taxation.

In the event that either party to the Agreement at Appendix 1 applies prejudicial or restrictive measures based on harmful tax practices to residents or citizens of the other party, it is understood that that other party may suspend the operation of the Agreement for so long as such measures apply. For these purposes, a prejudicial or restrictive measure based on harmful tax practices means a measure applied by one party to residents or citizens of either party on the basis that the other party does not engage in effective exchange of information or because it lacks transparency in the operation of its laws, regulations or administrative practices, or on the basis of no or nominal taxes and one of the preceding criteria. Without limiting the generality of the term "prejudicial or restrictive measures" it includes the denial of a deduction, credit or exemption, the imposition of a tax, charge or levy, or special reporting requirements. Such measures are not limited solely to taxation matters. However, they do not include any generally applicable measure, applied by either party against, amongst others, members of the OECD generally.

The United Kingdom and Jersey recognise that we share a common commitment to comply with international standards of anti-money laundering and counter terrorist financing legislation and financial regulation, and to participate in international efforts to combat financial and other crimes including fiscal crime. The Government of the United Kingdom is pleased to note the actions that Jersey has taken in recent years to comply with these international standards and is also pleased to note that Jersey has been recently reviewed by the IMF to assess compliance with the current international standards.

The United Kingdom will use its best endeavours to ensure that where EU Directives or Regulations include provisions referring to the position of third countries, particularly in relation to access to markets, Jersey is treated as fairly as other third countries.

The United Kingdom recognises Jersey as a member of the community of jurisdictions committed to international cooperation and information exchange on tax matters and wishes to assure the States of Jersey that Jersey will be treated as such by the United Kingdom authorities. The United Kingdom also recognises the States of Jersey's commitment to a "good neighbour" policy.

I have the honour to propose that, if the above is acceptable to the States of Jersey, this letter and Appendices 1 and 2 together with your reply will constitute our mutual acceptance of the provisions of the Agreement and the Arrangement.

The United Kingdom welcomes this Agreement as a significant step in establishing Jersey's status as a jurisdiction which complies with international standards in the field of taxation, and looks forward to further progress in this area.

Please accept, Sir, the assurance of our highest consideration,

The Rt. Hon. Stephen Timms MP
Financial Secretary to the Treasury
