EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING

The Industrial Training Levy (Engineering Construction Board) Order 2006

Made - - - -	2006
Coming into force - -	2006

This Order is made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 11(2) and section 12(2), (3) and (4) of the Industrial Training Act 1982(1) ("the Act").

The Order gives effect to levy proposals submitted by the Engineering Construction Industry Training Board pursuant to section 11(1) of the Act.

A draft of the Order was laid before Parliament in accordance with section 12(6) of the Act and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.

The Secretary of State consulted Scottish Ministers pursuant to section 88(2) of the Scotland Act 1998(2).

In relation to the requirement set out at section 11(3) of the Act the proposals exempt small employers.

No exemption certificates are to be issued.

The levy to be paid by employers in the industry exceeds one per cent of their relevant emoluments (that is their payroll) and accordingly this levy order falls within section 11(7)(b) of the Act; the Secretary of State is satisfied that the amount to be paid by employers in the industry is appropriate in the circumstances.

In relation to the requirements set out at section 11(5) of the Act the Secretary of State is satisfied that the proposals are necessary to encourage adequate training in the industry and the condition set out at section 11(6)(a) is met.

Accordingly the Secretary of State for Education and Skills makes the following Order:

(1) 1982 c.10; sections 11 and 12 were amended by section 22(4) of, and paragraphs 10 and 11 respectively of Schedule 4 to, the Employment Act 1989 (c.38).

(2) 1998 c.46; the Engineering Construction Industry Training Board has been specified as a cross-border public authority for the purposes of section 88; see the Scotland Act 1998 (Cross-Border Public Authorities) (Specification) Order 1999; S.I. 1999/1319.

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Industrial Training Levy (Engineering Construction Board) Order 2006 and shall come into force on the seventh day after the day on which it is made.

(n) "site employee" means an employee (including a person employed under a labour-only agreement) the activities of whose employment take place wholly or mainly at a site where activities falling under paragraph 1(a) of Schedule 1 to the industrial training order are carried on;

(2) Any reference in this Order to an establishment that commences to carry on business or that ceases to carry on business shall not be taken to apply where the location of the establishment is changed but its business is continued wholly or mainly at or from the new location, or where the suspension of activities is of a temporary or seasonal nature.

(3) For the purposes of this Order in the case of an establishment that is taken over (whether directly or indirectly) by an employer in succession to, or jointly with, another person, the person or persons carrying on the establishment on the last day of the levy period shall be treated as the employer of any person who was employed at any time in the base period at or from the establishment

(3) The Board was re-named by S.I. 1991/1305.
(4) S.I. 1964/1086, amended by S.I. 1991/1305.

under a contract of service or of apprenticeship or under a labour-only agreement and that employer shall be assessed to levy in accordance with article 4.

(4) This Order applies to the activities of the engineering construction industry in so far as they are carried out in Great Britain or in so far as they are carried out in relation to employment to which the Employment Protection (Offshore Employment) Order 1976(5) applies.

Meaning of "leviable establishment"

3.—(1) For the purposes of this Order "leviable establishment" means—

(a) an establishment engaged during the necessary period wholly or mainly in the engineering construction industry; and

(b) an establishment (not falling within sub-paragraph (a)) at or from which persons were employed during the necessary period in any activities such as are mentioned in paragraph 1(a)(ii) of the Schedule to the industrial training order (but subject to paragraph 2 of that Schedule).

(2) In this article "the necessary period" means—

(a) Unless sub-paragraph(b) applies, a period (which need not be continuous) consisting of a total of 27 or more weeks falling within the base period; or

(b) In the case of an establishment that started to carry on business in the base period, a period (which need not be continuous) falling within the base period consisting of a total number of weeks exceeding one half of the number of weeks in the part of the base period starting on the day on which business was commenced and ending on the last day of the base period.

Imposition of levy

4.—(1) The levy to be imposed by the Board on employers in respect of the levy period shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(2) The levy shall be assessed by the Board separately in respect of each leviable establishment of an employer, but in agreement with the employer one assessment may be made in respect of any number of such establishments, in which case those establishments shall be treated for the purposes of that assessment as constituting one establishment.

(3) Subject to the exemptions in article 5 the amount to be assessed by way of levy in respect of each leviable establishment shall be the aggregate of—

1.5 per cent of (A + B – C) (disregarding any negative total) and

0.18 per cent of (D + E – F) (disregarding any negative total), where—

A is the total emoluments of all the person who are site employees employed by the employer in the base period at or from the establishment,

B is the sum of all payments (including payments for the incidental use of tools) made by the employer during the base period under labour-only agreements for services rendered to him by site employees,

C is the sum of all payments (including payments for the incidental use of tools) received by the employer during the base period from any other employers in the engineering construction industry under labour-only agreements for services rendered by him or on his behalf by site employees,

(5) S.I. 1976/766; the whole of the Industrial Training Act 1982 has been applied by the Employment Protection (Offshore Employment) order 1976 for such purposes as are relevant to or in relations to person in employment to which that Order applies (article 3 and Part I of the Schedule, paragraph 1); relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1977/588 and 1981/208.
