GENERAL

General effect of order

3.—(1) This Order applies in relation to any such office-holder as is mentioned in Article 4 so as to modify, or further modify, any relevant statutory provision in respect of him and, accordingly, the scheme which is applicable in relation to him shall make provision for his benefit, or otherwise in relation to him, which accords with the following provisions of this Order.

(2) Articles 8 and 9 of this Order (which relate to guaranteed minimum pensions) apply in relation to any such office-holder as is mentioned in Article 4 notwithstanding any other provision in any statutory provision, including the other provisions of this Order.

Office-holders to whom order applies

4. This Order shall have effect in relation to, but only to, an office-holder who is holding a scheduled office on 1st April 1987, or who is appointed to such an office when under pensionable age on or after that date:—

Provided that neither Article 6 nor Article 7 shall entitle an office-holder appointed to a scheduled office on or after 1st April 1987, or his widow, to a pension other than the minimum guaranteed under Article 8 or 9, unless his service in that office may be reckoned, for the purpose of superannuation benefits, together with service of his in an earlier office wholly or partly before that date (or might have been so reckoned but for his having left the later office before reaching compulsory retirement age).

Ceasing to hold office and relevant service

5.—(1) An office-holder does not cease to hold office for the purposes of this Order so long as he holds any scheduled office or an office service in which may, under any statutory provision, be reckoned on any basis together with earlier service of his in a scheduled office for the purpose of superannuation benefits.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) below, an office-holder's service in a scheduled office is relevant service for the purposes of this Order and his relevant service may include any earlier service of his which may, under any statutory provision, be reckoned on any basis together with service of his in a scheduled office.

(3) Service is not relevant service for the purposes of this Order if it is service before 6th April 1978.

(4) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2) above:—

(a) it is immaterial whether—

(i) the office-holder has served at any time in any other office (including an office in relation to which he ceases to hold office for the purposes of this Order);

(ii) the earlier and the later offices are the same;

(iii) any election in respect of the office-holder is available, or, if available, has been made; and

(iv) the superannuation benefits payable under the relevant enactment relating to one office would, in the circumstances of the case, be unaffected by adding the other service into the reckoning; and

(b) service in an earlier office shall be treated as reckonable with service in a later scheduled office if it would have been so reckonable but for the office-holder's having left the later (or a subsequent) office before reaching compulsory retirement age.

Requisite Benefits

Office-holder's benefits

6.—(1) As from his attainment of pensionable age, an office-holder shall be entitled for the purposes of this Order to a pension under a scheme for his life.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4) below, the annual rate of the office-holder's pension under paragraph (1) shall be 1¼ per cent. of his final salary multiplied by the number of years of relevant service completed by him before he attained pensionable age.

(3) Paragraph (2) above shall not apply in relation to an office-holder who—

(a) ceases to hold office before normal pension age, and

(b) has completed less than five years' qualifying service for the purposes of Schedule 3 to the Principal Order.

(4) Any part of the pension under paragraph (1) above in excess of the office-holder's guaranteed minimum pension shall be postponed for any period for which he continues in employment (whether or not employment to which the scheme relates) after attaining pensionable age.

Widow's benefits

7.—(1) As from the death of an office-holder (whether before or after attaining pensionable age) his widow shall be entitled for the purposes of this Order to a pension under a scheme.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4) below, the annual rate of the widow's pension under paragraph (1) shall be ⅝ths per cent. of the final salary (or last salary before death) of the office-holder multiplied by the number of years of relevant service completed by him before he attained pensionable age.

(3) Paragraph (2) above shall apply for any such period as is mentioned in Article 38(6) of the Principal Order.

(4) Paragraph (2) above shall not apply in relation to an office-holder who dies after ceasing to hold office and who has completed less than five years' qualifying service for the purposes of Schedule 3 to the Principal Order (preservation).
