(d) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1966 No. 130 as amended by S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1967 No. 236 and renamed the Clothing Industry Training Board by S.R. 1984 No. 38
(e) By Article 4 of and Schedule 1 to S.R. 1984 No. 38

"eighteenth levy period" means the year commencing on 1st August 1984;

"election" means an election, under the provisions of paragraph 2(1)(b) of the Schedule, by an employer to pay the levy in respect of the emoluments of the persons employed in the relevant establishment during the alternative eighteenth base period;

"employer" means a person who is an employer in the clothing industry at any time in the eighteenth levy period, but does not include a person in whose case the sum of the emoluments paid or payable to all persons in his employment in the eighteenth base period or, where an election is made, the alternative eighteenth base period, is less than £40,000 or in the case of two or more clothing establishments where the sum of the emoluments of all the persons employed in all of such establishments is less than £40,000;

"industrial training order" means the Industrial Training (Clothing and Footwear Board) Order (Northern Ireland) 1966;

"levy" means the levy imposed by the Board in respect of the eighteenth levy period;

"notice" means a notice in writing.

(3) Any reference in this Order to an establishment that commences to carry on business or that ceases to carry on business shall not be taken to apply where the location of the establishment is changed but its business is continued wholly or mainly at or from the new location, or where the suspension of activities is of a temporary or seasonal nature.

Imposition and assessment of the levy for the eighteenth levy period

2.—(1) The levy to be imposed on employers shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this Article and of the Schedule.

(2) The levy shall be assessed by the Board separately in respect of each clothing establishment of an employer, but in agreement with the employer one assessment may be made in respect of any number of such establishments, in which case those establishments shall be deemed for the purposes of that assessment to constitute one establishment.

Assessment notices

3.—(1) The Board shall serve an assessment notice on every employer assessed to the levy, but one notice may comprise two or more assessments.

(2) Where an election has been made, the Board may serve two or more assessment notices in respect of any establishment.

(3) The amount of any assessment payable under an assessment notice shall be rounded down to the nearest £1.

(4) An assessment notice shall state the Board's address for the service of a notice of appeal or of an application for an extension of time for appealing.

(5) An assessment notice may be served on the person assessed to the levy either by delivering it to him personally or by leaving it, or sending it to him by post, at his last known address or place of business in the United Kingdom or, if that person is a corporation, by leaving it, or sending it by post to the corporation, at such address or place of business or at its registered or principal office.

Payment of the levy

4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article and of Articles 5 and 6 the amount of each assessment appearing in an assessment notice served by the Board shall be payable to the Board in two instalments and—

(a) the first instalment shall be an amount equal to 20 per centum of the assessment and shall be due on 1st March 1985 or one month after the date of the notice, whichever is the later; and

(b) the second instalment shall be an amount equal to 80 per centum of the assessment and shall be due on 1st December 1985.

(2) Where an election has been made—

(a) the first instalment shall be an amount equal to 40 per centum of the assessment calculated in accordance with paragraph 2(2) of the Schedule and shall be due on 1st March 1985 or one month after the date of the notice, whichever is the later; and

(b) the second instalment calculated in accordance with paragraph 2(2) of the Schedule shall be due on 1st December 1985.

(3) An instalment of an assessment shall not be recoverable by the Board until there have expired the time allowed for appealing against the assessment by Article 6(1) and any further period or periods of time that the Board or an appeal tribunal may have allowed for appealing under Article 6(2) or (3) or, where an appeal is brought, until the appeal is decided or withdrawn.

Withdrawal of assessment

5.—(1) The Board may, by a notice served on the person assessed to the levy in the same manner as an assessment notice, withdraw an assessment if that person has appealed against that assessment under the provisions of Article 6 and the appeal has not been entered in the Register of Appeals kept under the regulations specified in Article 6(5).

(2) The withdrawal of an assessment shall be without prejudice to the power of the Board to serve a further assessment notice in respect of any establishment to which that assessment related and where the withdrawal is made by reason of the fact that an establishment has ceased to carry on business in the eighteenth levy period, the said notice may provide that the whole amount payable thereunder shall be due one month after the date of the notice.

Appeals

6.—(1) A person assessed to the levy may appeal to an appeal tribunal against the assessment within one month from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within any further period or periods of time that may be allowed by the Board or an appeal tribunal under the following provisions of this Article.

(2) The Board for good cause may, by notice, extend the time within which an appeal may be made by such further period or periods as the Board may allow in any case where an application for such extension is made within the period of four months from the date of the service of the relevant notice of assessment or, where an extension has already been granted, before the period of such extension has expired.

(3) If the Board shall not allow an application for extension of time for appealing, an appeal tribunal shall upon application to the tribunal by the person assessed to the levy within the period of fourteen days from the date of receipt of the decision of the Board refusing such an application have the like powers as the Board under paragraph (2).

(4) In the case of an establishment that ceases to carry on business in the eighteenth levy period on any day after the date of the service of the relevant assessment notice the foregoing provisions of this Article shall have effect as if for the period of four months from the date of the service of the assessment notice mentioned in paragraph (2) there were substituted the period of six months from the date of the cessation of business.
