"welfare food" means milk, dried milk, children's vitamin drops or vitamin tablets;

"welfare milk" means the milk or dried milk which a beneficiary is entitled to obtain under Part II of these regulations;

"young child" means a child aged not more than 5 years and 1 month.

(2) Where any provision herein (other than a provision in regulation 19 or 20) requires or enables anything to be done by or in respect of a beneficiary, and that beneficiary is a young child or a handicapped child, the provision shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to refer to one of his parents or his guardian or the person having custody of him.

PART II

ENTITLEMENT TO WELFARE FOOD

Meaning of a family in special circumstances

3.—(1) For the purposes of these regulations, a beneficiary shall be deemed to belong to a family in special circumstances—

(a) if and for as long as that family is entitled to receive supplementary benefit in accordance with the provisions of Part II of the Supplementary Benefits &c. Act (Northern Ireland) 1966(e); or

(b) in respect of any period during which his requirements exceed his resources when calculated or estimated by the Department in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 3, 4(1)(a), 7 and 8, 8A(1)(a), 8A(1)(b)(i), 8A(1)(c), 9, 10(f) and 12 and 13, 15 to 23(1), 23(1A)(g) and 24 to 29 of Schedule 2 to the said Act of 1966 and as if—

(i) in paragraph 23(1) of the said Schedule (calculation of weekly earnings) for the amount specified in sub-paragraph (a) there were substituted the amount specified in sub-paragraph (b); and

(ii) his requirements were deemed to include also—

(A) the standard price of milk at the rate of one pint per day and the cost of other welfare food as set out in Schedule 2 plus the sum of £1; and

(d) S.I. 1965/1412 (1965 II, p. 4176)
(e) 1966 c. 28 (N.I.)
(f) Inserted by section 6 of and paragraph 3 of Schedule 4 to the National Insurance and Supplementary Benefit Act 1973 (c. 42). See also the Supplementary Benefit (Determination of Requirements) (No. 2) Regulations (N.I.) 1975 No. 212
(g) Added by section 11 of and paragraph 4(2)(b) of Schedule 3 to the Social Security Benefits Act 1975 (c. 11)

(B) an amount in respect of mortgage repayments as is reasonable in the circumstances; and in considering what, if any, amount to allow under paragraph 4(1)(a) of Schedule 2 to the said Act of 1966 regard shall be had to the provisions made by paragraphs 8A(2) and 8A(3)(h) of that Schedule.

(2) Where by virtue of paragraph 3 of the said Schedule the resources of the beneficiary would be aggregated with those of some other person, the requirements and resources of that other person when calculated as aforesaid shall be deemed to be the requirements and resources of the beneficiary.

(3) A beneficiary deemed to belong to a family in special circumstances by virtue of sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1) shall continue to belong to such a family for such period not exceeding 12 months as the Department may allow or, where the beneficiary is a child, until he attains the age of 5 years and 1 month, whichever is the earlier.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3) where a mother in a family in special circumstances becomes an expectant mother during such period as is mentioned in that paragraph, she shall be deemed to be a beneficiary in that family during that period without making a further application under these regulations.

(5) A beneficiary shall be deemed to belong to a family in special circumstances if and for as long as that family is entitled to receive Family Income Supplement in accordance with the provisions of the Family Income Supplements Act (Northern Ireland) 1971(i).

Entitlement to welfare milk

4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, welfare milk shall be available on application, to all beneficiaries free of charge at a rate for each beneficiary of 7 pints per week of liquid milk or one 20 oz pack per week of dried milk.

(2) Where a nursing mother applies for welfare milk in respect of a young child whom she is suckling, she shall not be entitled under paragraph (1) to welfare milk in respect of both herself and the child; but nothing in regulation 20 shall prohibit her from consuming any welfare milk obtained for the child.

(3) Dried milk, additional to that to which he is entitled under paragraph (1) shall be available free of charge, on application, for a young child under one year of age who is being fed mainly on dried milk, in the quantities specified in column (2) of Schedule 1 in relation to his age at the time of application as specified in column (1).

(4) A child who has not started school at the age of 5 years and 1 month shall continue to be entitled to welfare milk under paragraph (1) for such period as may elapse until he starts full-time education.

Entitlement to welfare food other than liquid milk

5.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a person of a class specified in column (1) of Schedule 2 may buy the welfare food specified in respect of him in column (2) at the price so specified in column (3) and where any such person is a beneficiary of a class defined in regulation 2(1)(a), (b) or (c) he shall be entitled to receive free of charge the quantity of welfare food specified in column (4).

(h) Inserted by section 6 of and paragraph 3 of Schedule 4 to the National Insurance and Supplementary Benefit Act 1973 (c. 42). See also the Supplementary Benefit (Determination of Requirements) (No. 2) Regulations (N.I.) 1975 No. 212

(i) 1971 c. 8 (N.I.)

(2) Where by reason of any shortage of any welfare food, stocks of any such foods are not available in sufficient quantities for the purposes of paragraph (1), the Department may, if necessary, limit or suspend the sale of any such food during any period of such shortage.

Milk for young children in day care

6. The Department may make arrangements for each young child attending any premises which are registered under section 11 of the Children and Young Persons Act (Northern Ireland) 1968(j) to receive free of charge (without prejudice to his entitlement under regulation 4) one-third of a pint of milk, or dried milk made up to provide one-third of a pint, in respect of each day of attendance.

PART III

SUPPLY OF WELFARE FOOD

Application forms

7. Applications for free welfare milk and food shall be made by beneficiaries on forms supplied for the purpose by the Department.

Issue of tokens

8. The Department shall issue tokens to enable beneficiaries to obtain free welfare milk under regulation 4 and free welfare food under regulation 5.

Use of tokens

9.—(1) To obtain the free welfare milk and food to which he is entitled, a beneficiary shall use the relevant tokens in the manner described in this regulation.

(2) A token for free welfare milk may be used—

(a) to obtain 7 pints of milk during one period of 7 consecutive days which period shall start on a Sunday and which, where a date is specified on a token, shall be the period ending on the Saturday following that date or during any of the 4 successive periods of 7 consecutive days; or

(b) to obtain a 20 oz pack of dried milk during a period which, where a date is specified on a token, shall be a period of 28 consecutive days before or after the date so specified; and a token shall not be used in any other manner.

(3) A token for free additional supplies of dried milk may be used to obtain a 20 oz pack of dried milk only when a token for free welfare milk is used to obtain dried milk.

(4) Tokens for children's vitamin drops and vitamin tablets may be used by a beneficiary of a class defined in regulation 2(1)(a), (b) or (c) to obtain free of charge the quantities of welfare food specified in respect of him in column (4) of Schedule 2.

(j) 1968 c. 34 (N.I.)

PART IV

DISTRIBUTION OF MILK

Suppliers of and charges for milk

10.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) where a supplier has accepted from any beneficiary a token for free welfare milk he shall (unless he has returned the token to the beneficiary before it became valid) supply 7 pints of milk to the beneficiary free of charge against the said token during the period of its validity.

(2) Where a supplier would be entitled under the Milk Order to charge for the milk supplied in accordance with paragraph (1) a price exceeding the standard price he may charge the beneficiary for the milk so supplied at a rate not exceeding the difference between the standard price and the price which he would be entitled to charge under the Milk Order.

(3) A supplier may accept tokens from a beneficiary before they have became valid; but he shall return to the beneficiary on demand all tokens in respect of which milk has not been supplied.

(4) If a supplier is prevented by circumstances beyond his control from supplying milk under this regulation he shall be deemed not to have contravened this regulation.

Absence for less than a week

11. Where any beneficiary is absent from his usual place of residence for more than one day but less than 7 days during the period of validity of any token for free welfare milk which a supplier has accepted from him, and the supplier has supplied against that token some, but not all, of the requisite 7 pints, the supplier shall, if the beneficiary so requests within the said period of validity, forthwith pay or allow the beneficiary, in respect of each pint not supplied, a sum equal to the standard price.

Absence for a week

12. Where a young or handicapped child is absent from his usual place of residence for any period of 7 consecutive days during which the person for the time being in charge of that child has provided him with 7 pints of milk, that person shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these regulations, be entitled to retain a token for free welfare milk issued in respect of the child and to use it free from all restrictions as to the use of the milk so obtained.

Submission of tokens by suppliers

13. A supplier shall, in such manner as the Department may from time to time direct, submit to the Milk Marketing Board for Northern Ireland all tokens against which the supplier has supplied 7 pints of milk, or has made an allowance in accordance with regulation 11.

PART V

TOKENS

Property in tokens

14. Every token is and shall remain the property of the Department.
