Amount of pension for widow or adult beneficiary

3. For regulation 19 of the 1973 regulations there shall be substituted:

"19.—(1) Subject to paragraph (4) below the annual amount of a pension payable to a widow or an adult nominated beneficiary shall be equal to the teacher's average salary multiplied by a fraction which has for its numerator the number of years of his reckonable service counting for benefit for the purposes of this regulation and for its denominator a figure of one hundred and sixty.

(2) The reckonable service of a teacher counting for benefit for the purposes of this regulation is his reckonable service since 1st April 1972 and so much of the service prescribed by paragraph (3) below as does not exceed the aggregate of his reckonable service between 1st June 1967 and 31st March 1972 and any service (whether reckonable or not) before 1st June 1967 in respect of which he could have elected to pay additional contributions under the 1967 regulations or the 1972 regulations.

(3) The service prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (2) is—

(b) any reckonable service before 1st April 1972 in respect of which the teacher elected to pay contributions under regulation 4 above;

(c) any service (whether or not it is reckonable service) before 1st April 1972 in respect of which he paid contributions or elected to pay (and did not revoke his election to pay) additional contributions under the Family Benefits Regulations—

(i) augmented by so much of any other service as is specified in an election by him to pay contributions under regulation 5; or

(ii) in any case where the service counting for benefit is not augmented under sub-paragraph (c)(i) above, reduced by six-fifths of the period (if any) of his service before 1st April 1972 in respect of which he did not elect to pay contributions under regulation 5;

(d) so much of his credited service (within the meaning of regulation 5(2) above) as exceeds the service prescribed by sub-paragraph (c) above.

(4) Where the service prescribed by paragraph (3) above exceeds the period specified by paragraph (2), paragraph (1) shall be read with the substitution for the numerator of the fraction there specified of the number of years of the aggregate of the reckonable service of the teacher and the amount of the excess.".
