Slaughter of Animals Act (Northern Ireland) 1932

1932 CHAPTER 9

An Act to provide for the humane and scientific slaughter of animals; and for purposes connected therewith. [7th June 1932]

Ss. 1, 2 rep. by SR 1996/558

3 Employment of slaughtermen by local authority.

Any local authority which have provided or established a slaughter-house may, if they think fit, employ persons to slaughter or stun animals,[F1]... and may make such charges as they consider reasonable for the services of the persons so employed.

Annotations:
F1 SR 1996/558

Ss. 4#6 rep. by SR 1996/558

S. 7 rep. by SRO (NI) 1973/343

S. 8 rep. by SR 1996/558

9 Interpretation.

For the purpose of this Act the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

"Slaughter-house" means any building, premises or place used in connection with the business of killing animals for the purpose of the flesh being used as butcher's meat;

Definition rep. by SR 1996/558

[[F2] "Butcher's meat" means the flesh of any animal intended for human consumption];