SCHEDULE

Holidays and Holiday Remuneration

The following provisions as to holidays and holiday remuneration shall be substituted for the provisions as to holidays and holiday remuneration set out in the Paper Box Wages Regulation (Holidays) Order (Northern Ireland) 1967 (Order N.I.B. (81)):—

PART I

APPLICATION

Paragraph 1.

(1) This Schedule applies to every male and female worker (other than an out-worker) for whom statutory minimum remuneration has been fixed.

(2) An "out-worker" is a worker who works in his or her own home or in any other place not under the control or management of the employer.

PART II

CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

Paragraph 2.

(1) An employer shall allow to every worker to whom this Schedule applies a holiday (hereafter referred to as a "customary holiday") in each year on the days specified in the following sub-paragraph provided that the worker has been in his employment for a period of not less than four weeks immediately preceding the customary holiday and has worked for the employer for not less than half that period and (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of the proved illness of the worker) has worked for the employer throughout the last working day on which work was available to him immediately preceding the customary holiday.

(2) The said customary holidays are:—

(a) Christmas Day, Boxing Day and the day following Boxing Day

Provided that—

(i) where Christmas Day or Boxing Day falls on a Saturday and the worker does not normally work for the employer on a Saturday, the employer shall allow to the worker, instead of the customary holiday, a holiday in lieu on a day on which the worker normally works for the employer within the period of eight weeks immediately following the customary holiday;

(ii) where Christmas Day falls on a Sunday the customary holidays shall be Boxing Day and the next two following days;

(iii) where the day following Boxing Day falls on a Sunday that Sunday shall not be treated as one of the customary holidays and a customary holiday shall be allowed to the worker on the Monday next following;

Easter Monday, Easter Tuesday and the Wednesday following the last-mentioned day, or

(b) a day substituted by the employer for any one of the said days, being either a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day or a day agreed between the employer and the worker or his representative.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2), an employer may (except where in the case of a woman or young person such a requirement would be unlawful) require a worker who is otherwise qualified to be allowed a customary holiday to work thereon, and, in lieu of any customary holiday on which he so works the worker shall be entitled to be allowed a day's holiday, (hereafter referred to as a "holiday in lieu of a customary holiday") within the period of four weeks next ensuing, on a day on which he normally works for the employer.

(4) A worker who is required to work on a customary holiday shall be paid:—

(a) for all time worked thereon at the minimum rate then appropriate to the worker for work on a customary holiday; and

(b) in respect of the holiday in lieu of the customary holiday, holiday remuneration in accordance with paragraph 6.

PART III

ANNUAL HOLIDAYS

Paragraph 3.

(1) In addition to the customary holidays specified in Part II and subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph and of paragraph 4 an employer shall, between 31st March 1970 and 30th September 1970, and in each succeeding year between 31st March and 30th September (hereafter referred to as the "holiday season") allow a holiday (hereafter referred to as "an annual holiday") to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies who was employed by him during the twelve months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season for any of the periods specified below, and the duration of the annual holiday shall be related to his period of employment during that twelve months as follows:—
