1. The currency of any Ulster Savings Certificate issued on or after the 1st February 1951, and before the 1st August 1956 (in these Regulations referred to as a "certificate of the Eighth Issue"), shall be prolonged to a date twenty-two years after the date of purchase of that certificate.

2. Interest shall be added after the seventeenth anniversary of the date of purchase up to and including the twenty-second anniversary of that date at the rate of fourpence in respect of each unit certificate of the Eighth Issue for each completed period of four months with a further addition of sixpence per unit certificate on the twenty-second anniversary of the date of purchase.

3. These Regulations may be cited as the Ulster Savings Certificates (Eighth Issue) Regulations 1967, and shall be construed as one with the Ulster Savings Certificates Regulations 1962 to 1967(a), and those Regulations and these Regulations may be cited together as the Ulster Savings Certificates Regulations 1962 to 1967.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland this 23rd day of October 1967 in the presence of

(L.S.) James Reid,
Assistant Secretary.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of these Regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations extend the currency of Ulster Savings Certificates of the Eighth Issue for a further five years, i.e. from seventeen to twenty-two years, with interest at the rate of one shilling per year for each unit certificate and an additional sixpence per unit certificate at the end of the twenty-second year.

FOYLE FISHERIES

Foyle Area (Elections to Advisory Council) Regulations 1967

REGULATIONS, DATED 10TH AUGUST 1967, MADE BY THE FOYLE FISHERIES COMMISSION WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE MINISTER FOR AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES IN THE IRISH REPUBLIC UNDER SECTION 13 OF THE FOYLE FISHERIES ACT, 1952, AND OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE FOR NORTHERN IRELAND UNDER SECTION 13 OF THE FOYLE FISHERIES ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND) 1952.

The Foyle Fisheries Commission, hereinafter referred to as the Commission, in exercise of its powers under Section 13 and Paragraphs 3 and 4 of the

(a) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1962, No. 36; 1963, No. 83; 1964, No. 59; 1964, No. 113; 1964, No. 210; 1965, No. 192; 1965, No. 195; 1966, No. 25; 1966, No. 46; 1966, No. 100; 1967, No. 33; 1967, No. 74; 1967, No. 227.

Fourth Schedule to the Foyle Fisheries Act 1952, and Section 13 and Paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Fourth Schedule to the Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952, hereby makes the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Foyle Area (Elections to Advisory Council) Regulations 1967, and shall come into force on the ninth day of October 1967.

2. In these regulations any reference to a fishing licence of a particular kind shall be construed as a reference to a licence of that kind issued by the Commission in the election year in pursuance of the Foyle Area (Licensing of Fishing Engines) Regulations 1960 as amended.

3. The Foyle Area shall be divided into two electoral divisions viz:—

(a) An upper electoral division comprising the waters of the River Foyle to the south of the line across that River formed by the southernmost boundary of the County of Londonderry, and any waters connected with the said river which enter it to the south of that line.

(b) A lower electoral division comprising all the waters of the Foyle Area other than those comprised in the upper electoral division.

4. There shall be elected to the Advisory Council—

(a) in the upper electoral division two members (hereinafter referred to as rod licensee members) elected by persons holding salmon rod licences, four members (hereinafter referred to as net licensee members) elected by persons holding fishing licences other than salmon rod licences, and one member (hereinafter referred to as a ratepayers' member) elected by rated occupiers of fisheries,

(b) in the lower electoral division two rod licensee members, three net licensee members and one ratepayers' member.

5.—(1) The persons entitled by law to vote at an election for elected members of the Advisory Council shall vote in either of the two electoral divisions as follows—

(a) In the upper electoral division

(i) every holder of a licence for a draft net to be used in the Foyle tideway within that division,

(ii) every holder of a licence for a draft net to be used in any part of the Foyle Area other than the Foyle tideway who resides to the south of the boundary line mentioned in Paragraph 3,

(iii) every holder of a season licence for a salmon rod who resides to the south of the said boundary line,

(iv) every person who is entitled to vote as a rated occupier of a fishery or fisheries situated in the said upper electoral division.

(b) (i) In the lower electoral division every holder of a licence for a draft net to be used in the Foyle tideway within that division,

(ii) every holder of a stake net, bag net or drift net licence,

(iii) every holder of a licence for a draft net to be used in any part of the Foyle Area other than the Foyle tideway who resides to the north of the said boundary line,

(iv) every holder of a season licence for a salmon rod who resides to the north of the said boundary line.

(v) every person who is entitled to vote as a rated occupier of a fishery or fisheries situate in the said lower electoral division.

(2) For the purposes of this Paragraph—

(a) a licence holder who ordinarily resides in the Foyle Area shall be deemed to reside at the address appearing on his fishing licence,

(b) a licence holder who ordinarily resides outside the Foyle Area shall be deemed to reside at the place where the licence was issued.

6.—(1) In each election year a returning officer shall be appointed by the Commission.

(2) After the 9th and not later than the 30th day of October 1967 and after the 1st and not later than the 10th day of October in each third year thereafter the returning officer shall publish a notice in two or more newspapers circulating in the Foyle Area stating the number of rod licensee members, net licensee members, and ratepayers' members as the case may be, to be elected to the Advisory Council and shall invite nominations for the election of members of the Council.

(3) The notice shall state the offices or persons from whom the nomination papers can be obtained and shall specify a day on or before which they must be received by the returning officer.

7. An Elector (being the holder of a season licence for a salmon rod, the holder of a net licence, or the rated occupier of a fishery) may nominate the name or names of any person or persons including himself (not exceeding the number of rod licensee members, net licensee members, or ratepayers' members as the case may be), to be elected in the division in which the elector is entitled to vote, which particulars shall be included on the nomination paper. The nomination paper having been duly signed by the elector, the nominee or nominees, and witnessed by one other elector resident in the same division as the nominating elector, shall be delivered by the nominating elector to the returning officer on or before the specified day.

8. If the number of persons nominated for election as a particular class of member in an electoral division is equal to or less than the number of such persons to be elected in that division the persons nominated shall be deemed to be elected and shall be certified as elected by the returning officer under his hand.

9. If the number of persons nominated for election as a particular class of member in an electoral division exceeds the number of such members to be elected in that division, the returning officer shall send by post to each elector for that particular class of member in that division, a voting paper containing in alphabetical order, the names of all persons so nominated and shall specify a day not less than five days or more than ten days from the date of sending the voting paper on or before which the voting paper is to be delivered to him. The voting papers may be sent to the returning officer by post.

10.—(1) Every voter shall insert against the name of every candidate for whom he intends to vote the number of votes (not exceeding in the whole the number of votes to which he is entitled) which he intends to give to the candidate and sign the voting paper with his name and address.

(2) A voter may give all his votes to one candidate or distribute them among such of the candidates (not exceeding the number to be elected) as he thinks fit.
