1966. No. 70 [C]

FOYLE FISHERIES

Foyle Area (Rivers Faughan and Roe Angling) Regulations 1966

REGULATIONS, DATED 16TH MARCH, 1966, MADE BY THE FOYLE FISHERIES COMMISSION WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE MINISTER FOR AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES IN THE IRISH REPUBLIC UNDER SECTION 13 OF THE FOYLE FISHERIES ACT, 1952, AND OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE FOR NORTHERN IRELAND UNDER SECTION 13 OF THE FOYLE FISHERIES ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND) 1952.

The Foyle Fisheries Commission in exercise of its powers under Section 13 of the Foyle Fisheries Act, 1952, and Section 13 of the Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952, hereby makes the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Foyle Area (Rivers Faughan and Roe Angling) Regulations, 1966.

2. These regulations shall apply to the rivers Faughan and Roe and their tributaries, and shall come into force on the 1st day of April, 1966.

3. For the purpose of these regulations:—

(1) the term "night fishing" shall mean angling on any day later than one hour after sunset or earlier than one hour before sunrise.

(2) the gape of a hook shall be measured as the distance when the hook is normally aligned between the point of the hook and the shank of the hook.

4. Angling shall be by any of the methods named in the first column of the schedule hereto and shall be subject to the respective limitations and restrictions specified in the third column of the said schedule. No person shall angle by any other method or in contravention of the said limitations and restrictions.

5. Fishing by any method is prohibited from and within fifty yards downstream of

(a) the weir known as Kane's Rock on the River Roe in the townland of Deer Park, Co. Londonderry.

(b) the weir known as Given's weir on the River Roe in the townland of Terrydremont, Co. Londonderry.

6. Fishing by any method is prohibited from and within one hundred yards downstream of

(a) the weir known as Ballyarton weir on the River Faughan in the townland of Lettermuck, Co. Londonderry.

(b) the weir known as the Bleachgreen weir on the River Faughan in the townland of Ardmore, Co. Londonderry, measured from an imaginary straight line drawn at right angles to the course of the river through the right bank extremity of the weir.
