EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations make a Scheme varying the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation (Supplementation) Scheme in consequence of the National Insurance &c. Act (Northern Ireland) 1964, to improve the allowances payable out of the Industrial Injuries Fund in respect of injury or disease arising out of employment before 5th July, 1948, when the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1946 came into force.

The Scheme does not apply to persons entitled to the allowances for total incapacity or disablement provided by the Workmen's Compensation (Supplementation) Act (Northern Ireland) 1956, the rates of these having been increased by the 1964 Act.
