so far as is material for the purposes of the accounts delivered under the Act, of the state of the company's affairs at the date thereof:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply where the first accounts delivered under the Act were audited by a person who audited the balance sheet comprised in the last such accounts.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, which are made under the Protection of Depositors Act (Northern Ireland) 1964, prescribe the information to be contained in or annexed to audited and interim accounts delivered by companies under that Act. The Regulations apply, subject to certain exceptions and modifications, the principal provisions of the Companies Act (Northern Ireland) 1960 relating to companies' accounts. The Regulations also specify in Part 1 of Schedule 2 the additional information which must be given by all companies delivering accounts under the Act, and in Part 2 of that Schedule, the further special information which must be given by certain property companies.
