EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the rules but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Superannuation (Allocation of Pension) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1936 and 1947, under which a retiring civil servant may allocate part of his pension in favour of a beneficiary, contained a restriction as to the minimum amount that could be allocated. The amending rules now made remove that restriction.

The amending rules also provide that the maximum fee payable in respect of an examination by a Medical Board shall be increased from £3 3s. 0d. to £6 6s. 0d.
