EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These rules make provision for election petitions questioning an election or return or complaining of no return to the Parliament of the United Kingdom under the Representation of the People Act 1949. The rules replace, in modern form, the existing rules which were made in 1868.

The practice and procedure of the High Court, subject to the provisions of the above Act and these rules, have been applied to a petition as if it were an ordinary action within the jurisdiction of the High Court.
