EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These rules amend the principal rules (a) so as to clarify the footnotes to certain Tables therein; and (b) so as to provide that an existing officer may allocate only so much of his superannuation allowance as would leave payable to him an amount equivalent at least to the maximum graduated retirement pension available under the National Insurance Graduated Pension Scheme, taking into account the increased level of such pension under the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland) 1963, from 6th January, 1964.
