ROYAL ULSTER CONSTABULARY

Pay

ORDER, DATED 2ND JULY, 1963, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS UNDER SECTION FOUR OF THE CONSTABULARY AND POLICE (IRELAND) ACT 1919(a) AND SECTION TWO OF THE CONSTABULARY ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND) 1922(b).

I, the Right Honourable William Craig, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by section four of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act 1919 and section two of the Constabulary Act (Northern Ireland) 1922 and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, do hereby order as follows:—

Citation

1. This Order may be cited as the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pay Order 1963.

Definitions

2. In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them:—

"The Force" means the Royal Ulster Constabulary.

"Member" means a member of the Force.

"Ministry" means the Ministry of Home Affairs.

"Inspector General" means the Inspector General of the Royal Ulster Constabulary.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 5. c. 68. (b) 12 & 13 Geo. 5. c. 8 (N.I.).

Revocation

3. The Royal Ulster Constabulary Pay Order 1961(a) is hereby revoked.

Pay

4. Subject to the conditions governing the management and control of the Force, the pay of members of the several ranks mentioned in the Schedule to this Order shall be in accordance with the rates, scales and conditions prescribed in that Schedule and shall apply in the case of Parts I and III from the dates set out therein and in the case of Part II for the period set out therein.

5.—(1) For the purposes of entry into the scale for District Inspector, those Officers who were formerly cadets in the Force shall be deemed to have entered at the minimum of the scale on completion of two years' service in the rank of District Inspector.

(2) Progression in the scale for District Inspector shall be subject to efficiency bars at the first, fifth and eighth increments, that is to say, an Officer shall not proceed beyond the said increments unless on each occasion respectively the Inspector General is satisfied that he has been zealous and efficient in the discharge of his duties.

6. In determining the point at which an existing member shall enter the scale of pay prescribed for his rank credit shall be given to him for past service in that rank since his latest promotion thereto by reckoning it for purposes of increment.

7. Where a person who has previously been a member rejoins the Force, the Inspector General may, if he so thinks fit, allow the period which at the date of the termination of his previous service had been credited to him for the purposes of pay to be, in whole or in part, similarly credited to him for purposes of pay on his rejoining the Force.

8. Where, within the meaning of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Orders 1949 to 1963, a regular policeman in Great Britain has been transferred to the Force, he shall be entitled to reckon for purposes of pay in the rank in which he joins the Force all service in the corresponding rank which at the date of the transfer he was entitled to reckon for purposes of pay in the Force from which he has been transferred.

9. Where a person who has been a regular policeman in Great Britain, within the meaning of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Orders 1949 to 1963, joins the Force other than on transfer he shall, if the Ministry in its discretion thinks fit, be entitled to reckon for purposes of pay his period of service in the Force in Great Britain.

10. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act 1883(b) no deduction in respect of station accommodation shall be made from a member's pay.

11. There may be deducted from a member's pay the amount of any sickness benefit under the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland) 1946(c) to which he was or may be entitled, or any injury benefit under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1946(d) to which he was or may be entitled.
