EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order enables a judge of the Supreme Court, on the application of the Attorney General, on being satisfied that a person has habitually and persistently instituted vexatious legal proceedings, to make an order that no legal proceedings shall be instituted in the High Court by that person without the leave of a judge of the Supreme Court.

1963. No. 121

As this Order has been classified as local it is not printed at length in this volume. A summary is given in the List of Statutory Rules and Orders of a Local Character under the heading ROADS.
