of the Family Allowances and National Insurance and Assistance Act (Northern Ireland), 1962, provide for the payment of a guardian's allowance in respect of a child in certain cases where one parent is dead and the surviving parent is in prison or in respect of whom an order has been made under section 56 or a direction has been issued under section 57 of the Mental Health Act (Northern Ireland), 1961. They also make provision for the repayment by the surviving parent to the National Insurance Fund of sums paid by virtue of the Regulations. The remaining provisions are of a minor or consequential character.
