10. Information received from applicants other than the names and addresses of the registered persons shall not be disclosed by the Ministry.

Revocation

11. The Aid to Industry Order (Northern Ireland), 1959(a), is hereby revoked.

Given under my hand this first day of February, nineteen hundred and sixty-two.

J. L. O. Andrews,
Minister of Commerce for Northern Ireland.

I, Captain the Right Honourable Terence M. O'Neill, D.L., Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland, hereby signify my approval of the foregoing Order.

Given under my hand this seventh day of February, nineteen hundred and sixty-two.

Terence O'Neill,
Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order has been made in accordance with the provisions of the Aid to Industry Act (Northern Ireland), 1961, which has superseded the Aid to Industry Act (Northern Ireland), 1953. The principal change is that the contributions which were previously paid to gas and electricity undertakings based on the quantity of coal used to produce the gas and electricity purchased by registered persons and which were passed on to the registered persons by the gas and electricity undertakings, will now be paid direct to those persons as gas and electricity contributions. The procedure for registration and for the submission of claims remains unaltered. It is unnecessary for persons registered under an Order made under the 1953 Act to seek re-registration.
